ARTICLE III

The purpose or purposes for which the corporation is organized are as follows:

The Mentors of the Miami Dade Veterans Treatment Court was established to support justice involved veterans enrolled in the Veterans Treatment Court (VTC) and their families as they complete a judicially supervised treatment program that permits their reentry into society as productive members of the community. The Volunteer Mentors of Miami Dade Inc. is composed of former veterans. The organizations assists VTC program participants in meeting the demanding rehabilitation and court mandated regimens necessary to complete the VTC program successfully. This assistance includes peer support, identifying possible training and education programs, providing transportation when needed for court mandated treatment and testing, provide links to possible employment opportunities, and sponsoring morale and welfare events for those participating in the VTC and their family members.

Said organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the organization shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the organization shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by any organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Upon the dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for the public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principle office of the organization is then located, exclusively for the purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
