CHABAD LUBAVITCH PANAMA INC
ARTICLE III PURPOSE

This corporation is founded exclusively for charitable religious purposes within the meaning of the IRS Code Sec 501(c)(3); namely: To provide religious, spiritual, educational, cultural, social and all other helpful activities to the local Jewish communities and to the general communities, as well as to Jewish trekkers, wanderers, tourists, business people and other visitors to the area. These services will include, but not be limited to: worship activities, religious education classes in person or online, spiritual guidance, community outreach, inspirational events, celebrations, sacred feasts, meetings, excursions and emergency assistance as well as all manner of helpful services to the local Jewish and general communities in the area regardless of background or affiliation. It will provide aid to the needy and establish orphanages and schools that will operate according to the values of holiness and purity, both in the Land of Israel and in Panama. It will provide any manner of aid and relief to travelers in need. It will especially attend to the spiritual and practical needs of US citizens located in Panama.

This corporation will strive to awaken the spark of inner holiness in the hearts of Jewish people and return them to their ancestral faith. It will likewise strive to prepare the world for redemption by bringing all persons in the general community closer to The Creator in the ways that are right for each. It will address the needs of persons of the Jewish faith and those of other disadvantaged populations in Panama. It will carry out its activities according to Torah-Halachic tradition contained in the Code of Jewish Law (Shulchan Aruch) by Rabbis Yosef Karo and Moshe Isserles as well as in the Code of Jewish Law by Rabbi Shneur Zalman of Liadi and the guidance of subsequent leaders of the Chabad Movement, all as understood by this corporation's Rabbi, who is the incorporator.

This corporation will be empowered to pay salaries or wages, as well as to rent or buy personal or real property, in order to carry out its activities and provide a residence for the Rabbi and his family. The Rabbi has been appointed according to Jewish Religious Law. He is the spiritual head of the organization and the final authority in all matters pertaining to Ethics, Spirituality and Religious Law, including the sole right to determine which questions or issues should be regarded as matters of Ethics, Spirituality and Religious Law, thus requiring his decision.

This corporation shall not, except in an insubstantial way, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of its charitable religious purposes. It will not attempt to influence legislation in any way or participate in political campaigns of any sort. No part of the net earnings of this corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its directors, officers or any private person except that this corporation will be empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered, to reimburse for expenses related to the carrying out of duties and make purchases of goods, services, resources or properties that are in furtherance of its exempt purposes.

This corporation is empowered to supply all the foods, religious items and physical constructions or properties required according to Jewish Law and Chabad tradition, including but not limited to, Religious Articles, Kosher Food, Ritual Immersion Pools, or transportation to any event or location which in the view of the Rabbi or Directors is required for the fulfillment of Religious Duties as understood in Jewish and/or Chabad Chasidic Tradition.

Upon the dissolution of this corporation, the directors will --after clearing all debts and liabilities-- distribute all remaining assets to one or more organizations with similar exempt purposes recognized under section 501(c) (3) of the IRS Code.
