We received your electronically transmitted document. However, the document has not been filed. Please make the following corrections and refax the complete document, including the electronic filing cover sheet.

You must list at least one incorporator with a complete business street address.

If your business entity does not intend to transact business until January 1st of the upcoming calendar year, you may wish to revise your document to include an effective date of January 1st. If you do not list an effective date of January 1st, your business entity will become effective this calendar year and it will be required to file an annual report and pay the required annual report fee for the upcoming calendar year this coming January, which is merely weeks away. By listing an effective date of January 1st, the entity's existence will not begin until January 1st of the upcoming year and will, therefore, postpone the entity's requirement to file an annual report and pay the required annual report filing fee until the following calendar year.

If you have any further questions concerning your document, please call (850) 245-6052.

(b) To be operated exclusively to foster international amateur sports competition in the field of dressage in compliance with Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

(c) To provide support to organizations that seek to advance Israeli athletes in the sport of dressage on an international level that conduct the following activities, among others:

- (i) Support and develop amateur athletes for international competition in the sport of dressage.
- (ii) Assist in the preparation of athletes for competition in the Olympic games.
- (iii) Identify athletes who have achieved a level of achievement and have the talent to compete at the Olympic level in dressage and provide support to such athletes.
- (iv) Assist and support intensive education, coaching and training activities designed to enhance the skill of athletes to compete at the highest level in dressage.
- (v) Provide Israeli athletes the opportunity to compete at the highest level of equestrian sports and garner positive international media attention.
- (vi) Provide financial assistance for support staff and travel expenses for dressage events.
- (vii) Advance equine sports, education and industry within Israel.
- (viii) Assist in the creation of an international Israeli equestrian team in dressage.

(d) To receive any real property, tangible or intangible personal property, including money by gift, grant, devise or bequest from any individual, foundation or corporation or other entity, either public or private, or government instrumentality for purposes set forth above.

All of the purposes and powers of the corporation are subject to the express conditions and limitations that:

(i) no part of the assets or earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of any of its directors, officers or other private individuals; provided, the corporation shall not be precluded from paying reasonable compensation for services rendered to or for the corporation or for making payments or distributions in furtherance of its purposes;

(ii) no substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation. The corporation shall not participate or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any political party or candidate for public office and the corporation shall not engage in any subversive activity;

(iii) the corporation shall not engage in any acts or activities which are not in furtherance of its purposes; and

(iv) financial support shall not be furnished directly to individuals, but only organizations that conduct activities consistent with the purposes of the corporation and are qualified under Section 501(j)(2) and Section 501(c) of the Code.

The corporation is organized to serve public interests. Accordingly, it shall not be operated for the benefit of private interests.

ARTICLE III

Powers

In furtherance of the purposes for which it is organized, the Corporation shall have the following powers:

(a) To promote, encourage and foster international amateur sports competition in the sport of dressage as defined within Section 501(c)(3) of the Code and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder;

(b) To accept, hold, invest, reinvest and expend, for the furtherance of any of the Corporation's purposes, any gifts, legacies, bequests, devises, contributions, grants or conveyances of funds and property of any sort or nature, including the right to be or act as the beneficiary of any trust;
