ARTICLE XI: INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS

To the fullest extent permitted by the Nonprofit Corporation Laws, a director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, or (iii) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. If the Nonprofit Corporation Laws are hereafter amended to authorize the further elimination or limitation of the liability of directors, then the liability of the directors of the Corporation, in addition to the limitation on personal liability provided herein, shall be limited to the fullest extent permitted by the amended Nonprofit Corporation Laws. Any repeal or modification of this paragraph by the directors of the Corporation shall be prospective only, and shall not adversely affect any limitation on the personal liability of a director of the Corporation at the time of such repeal or modification.

ARTICLE XII: DISSOLUTION OF ASSETS

Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Corporation, dispose of all the assets of the Corporation exclusively for the exempt purposes of the Corporation to such other organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, scientific, literary, religious and educational purposes which at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code or any successor provision of the Code, as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any assets not so distributed by the Board of Directors shall be distributed by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the Corporation's principal office is then located exclusively for the Corporation's exempt purposes. No director or officer of the Corporation or any private individual or entity related to the foregoing shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any corporate assets upon the dissolution of the Corporation.

ARTICLE XIII: AMENDMENTS

This Corporation reserves the right at any time, and from time to time, to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in the Articles of Incorporation, and to add other provisions to the Articles of Incorporation authorized by the laws of the State of Florida, at the time such laws are in force, by a two-thirds majority of the members of the Board of Directors present at a meeting duly convened, in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by law; and all rights, preferences and privileges of whatsoever nature conferred upon the directors or any other persons whomsoever by and pursuant to the Articles of Incorporation in its present form or as hereafter amended are
