AMENDED AND RESTATED ARTICLE III:

The specific purpose for which this corporation is organized is to function as a grant-making private foundation, which will make grants and distributions to selected tax-exempt public charities for charitable, religious, educational, and/or scientific purposes.

The corporation is organized and shall be operated exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes within the meaning of § 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding sections of any future federal tax code (the current and any corresponding sections of any future federal tax code, hereinafter "Code"), including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under § 501(c)(3) of the Code.

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in these Articles. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under § 501(c)(3) of the Code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under § 170(c)(2) of the Code.

The income of the corporation shall be distributed at such time and in such manner as not to subject the corporation to tax under § 4942 of the Code. The corporation shall be prohibited from engaging in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Code, from retaining any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Code, from making any investments in such manner as to subject the foundation to tax under Section 4944 of the Code, and from making any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Code.

Except as restricted in these Articles or in the Bylaws, the corporation shall have all powers to carry out its purposes and its lawful activities incidental to its purposes, including, in furtherance of these purposes, the powers conferred by law, the Code, and the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act, as amended from time to time. In addition, the corporation shall have and exercise all other powers not denied to not for profit corporations by the laws of the State of Florida as are necessary, proper, convenient, and expedient to the attainment of the purposes set forth in these Articles and the powers set forth herein.

NEW ARTICLE VIII:

The corporation shall have members, to the extent provided in the corporation's Bylaws. No member shall have any right, title, or interest in or to any property held in the name of, or for the benefit of, the corporation.

NEW ARTICLE IX:

Upon dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all liabilities of the corporation, distribute all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for charitable purposes within the meaning of § 501(c)(3) of the Code, or to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for public purposes and as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Circuit Court in the county in which the principal office of this corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
