ARTICLE IV

PURPOSES

The Corporation is organized and will be operated exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, including, without limitation, to educate "We the People" that "in Order to form a more perfect Union" their state legislatures have the right to propose and the people to ratify an Amendment under Article V of the US Constitution that promotes fiscal sustainability "to secure the blessings of liberty", peace, and prosperity, for our country, families and future generations of Americans. In furtherance of such purpose, the Corporation is authorized to do all acts and things requisite, necessary, proper, and desirable to carry out and further the purposes of the Corporation and, in general, to have all the rights, privileges, and immunities, and enjoy all the benefits of the laws of the State of Florida applicable to corporations of this character, including but not limited to the powers described in section 617.0302 of the Florida Statutes, subject however to the requirements of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and to the other limitations provided in these Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE V

RIGHTS AND RESTRICTIONS

Despite any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation may not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by an organization exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. These restrictions include, but are not limited to, the following:

5.1 No Private Inurement. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation may inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, the directors or officers of the Corporation, or to any other private persons, except that the Corporation is authorized and empowered (i) to pay reasonable compensation for personal services rendered to the Corporation, so long as the services are reasonable and necessary to carrying out the charitable purposes of the Corporation, and to reimburse expenses or advances made for the Corporation that are reasonable in character and amount, and (ii) to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the Corporation's exempt purposes as set forth in Article IV.

5.2 No Substantial Lobbying Activities; No Political Activities. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation (except to the extent permitted pursuant to an election made under Section 501(h) of the Code), and the Corporation shall not participate in or intervene in any political campaign (including the publishing or distributing of statements) on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

ARTICLE VI
DISPOSITION OF ASSETS

If the Corporation is dissolved pursuant to the Florida Statutes, the Board of Directors, after paying, satisfying, discharging, or making adequate provision for the payment of all of the liabilities and obligations of the Corporation, shall distribute all of the assets of the Corporation to one or more organizations that are organized and operated exclusively for charitable or educational purposes within the meaning of Sections 501(c)(3) and 170(c)(2)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code, as the Board of Directors determines. Any assets not so disposed of will be disposed of by the Circuit Court of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such charitable or educational purposes, or to such organization or organizations as that Court determines are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE VII
MEMBERSHIP

The Corporation shall have no members.

ARTICLE VIII
DIRECTORS

All corporate powers will be exercised by or under the authority of, and the affairs of the Corporation will be managed under the direction of, a Board of Directors. The qualifications and number of directors will be as provided in the Bylaws. The initial Board of Directors shall have four (4) members, and their names and addresses are as follows:

Biddulph, David L., 142 Weekend Dr., Daytona Beach FL 32124

Walker, David M., 142 Weekend Dr., Daytona Beach FL 32124

Owens, William A., 142 Weekend Dr., Daytona Beach FL 32124

Poulsen, Barry W., 142 Weekend Dr., Daytona Beach FL 32124

H21000465508 3

The terms for which the directors are to serve, and the method by which the directors are to be elected, will be stated in the Bylaws.

ARTICLE IX

INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

Every director or officer of the Corporation will be indemnified by the Corporation against all expenses and liabilities, including counsel fees, reasonably incurred by or imposed in connection with any proceeding or any settlement of any proceeding (including any appeals) to which a director or officer may be a party or may become involved by reason of being or having been a director or officer of the Corporation, whether or not a director or officer at the time such expenses are incurred, but only if (i) the director or officer is not adjudged guilty of or liable for willful misfeasance in the performance of his or her duties, and (ii) in the case of a settlement before entry of judgment, the Board of Directors approves such settlement and reimbursement as being in the best interest of the Corporation. The foregoing right of indemnification will be in addition to and not exclusive of all other rights to which a director or officer may be entitled by law. Appropriate liability insurance may be provided for every officer, director, and agent of the Corporation in amounts determined from time to time by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE X

AMENDMENTS TO ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

The Board of Directors may adopt, alter, amend, or repeal these Articles of Incorporation at any meeting of the Board of Directors at which a quorum is present, in accordance with the provisions of the Bylaws, by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the directors then serving.
