1. The purposes for which the Corporation is organized and operated are exclusively religious, charitable, and educational within the meaning of Section 501(c) 3 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or a corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law. Such purposes of the Corporation shall include the following:
 - a) To operate and establish a mentoring program to help women and youth reach their full potential and become productive citizens.
 - b) To provide programs and services that train and empower women to explore new careers, obtain technology skills, and be productive in the workplace.
 - c) To provide career development and training to assist women and youth with the tools and resources necessary to obtain employment.
 - d) To offer opportunities for youth and women to participate in outreach and community service activities.

- e) To provide community and social services programs that empowers individuals to be independent and self-sufficient.
 - f) To establish and engage in any other outreach activities that the organization may decide to pursue.
2. As a means of accomplishing the above purposes and methods, and in compliance with the Florida nonprofit law, the Corporation shall have the following powers:
- (a) To receive and accept gifts of money and property and to hold the same for any of the purposes of the Corporation and its work.
 - (b) To raise and assist in raising funds for the purposes herein set forth, to accept property and donations in trust for religious purposes.
 - (c) To sell, exchange, convey, mortgage, lease, transfer, or otherwise dispose of, any such property, both real and personal, as the objects and purposes of the Corporation may require, subject to such limitations as may be prescribed by law.
 - (d) To borrow money, and, from time to time, to make, accept, endorse, execute and issue bonds, debentures, promissory notes, bills of exchange, and other obligations of the Corporation for monies borrowed or in payment for property acquired, or for any of the other purposes of the Corporation, and to secure the payment of any such obligations by mortgage, pledge, deed, indenture, agreement, or other instrument of trust, or by other lien upon, assignment of, or agreement in regard to all or any part of the property, rights for privileges of the Corporation, wherever situated, whether now owned or hereafter to be acquired.
