10.6 Standards. A Director shall discharge his duties as a Director, including any duties as a member of a Committee in good faith, with the care an ordinary prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances, and in a manner reasonably believed to be in the best interest of the Condominium Association. Unless a Director has knowledge concerning a matter in question that makes reliance unwarranted, a Director, in discharging his duties, may rely on information, opinions, reports or statements, including financial statements and other data, if prepared or presented by: one or more officers or employees of the Condominium Association whom the Director reasonably believes to be reasonable and competent in the manners presented; legal counsel, public accountants or other persons as to matters the Director reasonably believes are within the persons' professional or expert competence; or a Committee of which the Director is not a member if the Director reasonably believes the Committee merits confidence. A Director is not liable for any action taken as a Director, or any failure to take action, if he performed the duties of his office in compliance with the foregoing standards.

ARTICLE 11 INDEMNIFICATION

11.1 Indemnitees. The Condominium Association shall indemnify any person who was, will be or is a party to any proceeding (other than an action by, or in the right of, the Condominium Association) by reason of the fact that he is or was a Director, officer, employee, contractor or agent (each, an "Indemnitee") of the Condominium Association, against liability incurred in connection with such proceeding, including any appeal of a proceeding, if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Condominium Association and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, or conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Condominium Association or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

11.2 Indemnification. The Condominium Association shall indemnify any person, who was, will be or is a party to any proceeding, or any threat of same, by or in the right of the Condominium Association to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a Director, officer, employee, contractor or agent of the Condominium Association against expenses and amounts paid in settlement not exceeding, in the judgment of the Board, the estimated expense of litigating the proceeding to conclusion, or actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of such proceeding, including any appeal of such proceeding. Such indemnification shall be authorized if such person acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Condominium Association, except that no indemnification shall be made under this Article 11 in respect of any claim, issue, or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable unless, and only to the extent that, the court in which such proceeding was brought, or any other court of competent jurisdiction, shall determine upon application that despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which such court shall deem proper.

11.3 Indemnification for Expenses. To the extent that a Director, officer, employee, contractor or agent of the Condominium Association has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any proceeding referred to in Section 11.1 or Section 11.2, or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter in Section 11.1 or Section 11.2, he shall be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith.

11.4 Determination of Applicability. Any indemnification under Section 11.1 or Section 11.2 unless pursuant to a determination by a court, shall be made by the Condominium Association only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the Director, officer, employee, contractor or agent is proper under the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 11.1 or Section 11.2. Such determination shall be made by the Board by a majority vote of the Directors who were not parties to such proceeding; or, if a quorum of the Directors cannot be attained, by a Majority of the Voting Interests who were not parties to such proceeding.

11.5 Determination Regarding Expenses. Evaluation of the reasonableness of expenses and authorization of indemnification shall be made in the same manner as the determination that indemnification is permissible. However, if the determination of permissibility is made by independent legal counsel, persons specified by Section 11.4 shall evaluate the reasonableness of expenses and may authorize indemnification.

11.6 Advancing Expenses. Expenses incurred by an officer or Director in defending a civil or criminal proceeding, or the threat of same, may be paid by the Condominium Association in advance of the final disposition of such proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such Director or officer to repay such amount if he is ultimately found not to be entitled to indemnification by the Condominium Association pursuant to this Article 11. Expenses incurred by other employees, contractors and agents may be paid in advance upon such terms or conditions that the Board deems appropriate.

11.7 Exclusivity; Exclusions. The indemnification and the advance of expenses provided pursuant to this Article 11 are not exclusive, and the Condominium Association may make any other or further indemnification of or advance of expenses to any of its Directors, officers, employees, contractors or agents, under any bylaw, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested Directors, or otherwise, both as to actions in his official capacity and as to actions in another capacity while holding such office. However, indemnification of or the advance of expenses shall not be made to or on behalf of any Director, officer, employee, contractor or agent if a judgment or other final adjudication establishes that his actions, or omissions to act, were material to the cause of action so adjudicated and constitute:

(a) A violation of criminal law, unless the Director, officer, employee, or agent had reasonable cause to believe his conduct was lawful or had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful;

(b) A transaction from which the Director, officer, employee, or agent derived an improper personal benefit; or

(c) Willful misconduct or a conscious disregard for the best interest of the Condominium Association in a proceeding by or in the right of the Condominium Association to procure a judgment in its favor or in a proceeding by or in the right of the members of the Condominium Association.

11.8 Continuing Effect. Indemnification and the advance of expenses as provided in this Article 11 shall continue as, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, to a person who has ceased to be a Director, officer, employee, contractor or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of such a person, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified.

11.9 Application to Court. Notwithstanding the failure of the Condominium Association to provide indemnification, and despite any contrary determination of the Board or of the members of the Condominium Association in the specific case, a Director, officer, employee, contractor or agent of the Condominium Association who is or was a party to a proceeding may apply for indemnification or advance of expenses, or both, to the court conducting the proceeding, to the circuit court, or to another court of competent jurisdiction. On receipt of an application, the court, after giving any notice that it considers necessary, may order indemnification and the advance of expenses, including expenses incurred in seeking court-ordered indemnification or the advance of expenses, if it determines that:

(a) The Director, officer, employee, contractor or agent is entitled to mandatory indemnification under Section 11.1, 11.2 or 11.3, in which case the court shall also order the Condominium Association to pay the Director, officer, employee, contractor or agent reasonable expenses incurred in obtaining court-ordered indemnification or an advance of expenses;

(b) The Director, officer, employee, contractor or agent is entitled to indemnification or the advance of expenses, or both, by virtue of the exercise by the Condominium Association of its power pursuant to Section 11.7; or

(c) The Director, officer, employee, contractor or agent is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification or an advance of expenses, or both, in view of all the relevant circumstances, regardless of whether such person met the standard of conduct set forth in Section 11.1, Section 11.2, or Section 11.7, unless (i) a court of competent jurisdiction determines, after all available appeals have been exhausted or not pursued by the proposed indemnitee, that he did not act in good faith or acted in a manner he reasonably believed to be not in, or opposed to, the best interest of the Condominium Association, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, that he had reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful, or (ii) such court determines that indemnification should be denied. The termination of any proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith or did act in a manner which he reasonably believed to be not in, or opposed to, the best interest of the Condominium Association, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, that he had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

11.10 Definitions. For purposes of this Article 11, the term “expenses” shall be deemed to include attorneys’ fees and related “out-of-pocket” expenses, including those for any appeals; the term “liability” shall be deemed to include obligations to pay a judgment, settlement, penalty, fine, and expenses actually and reasonably incurred with respect to a proceeding; the term “proceeding” shall be deemed to include any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or other type of proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal; and the term “agent” shall be deemed to include a volunteer; the term “serving at the request of the Condominium Association” shall be deemed to include any service as a Director, officer, employee, contractor or agent of the Condominium Association that imposes duties on, and which are accepted by, such persons.

11.11 Effect. The indemnification provided by this Article 11 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any applicable law, agreement, vote of members or otherwise.

11.12 Amendment. No amendment to the provisions of this Article 11 shall be applicable as to any party eligible for indemnification under Article 11 who has not given his prior written consent to such amendment.
