ARTICLE III PURPOSE

The purpose for which the corporation is organized is to obtain charitable donations from local retailers and those residing in the communities of nutrition and supplies for low income individuals in the local communities. Additionally our charitable organization will assist those who cannot afford the proper nutrition to maintain their diet according to their physician's recommendations based on their current state of health. With the charitable donations we will distribute these donations to those low income individuals based on their specific needs. We have identified the need for this charitable organization as there are several low income individuals who lack the proper nutrition and supplies to sustain their daily lives thusly forming this organization will be key to assisting those in need. After forming this corporation we will apply for form 501(c)(3) for tax exempt status as a not-profit charitable organization. We will then proceed to apply for a charitable non-profit organization grant to assist with the cost of a warehouse, refrigerators/ freezers, utilities, etc. Our goal is to make a positive impact in our communities to improve the lives of those in need.

ARTICLE VIII LIMITATIONS

All of the assets and earnings of the Corporation shall be used exclusively for the exempt purposes hereinabove set forth, including the payment of expenses incidental thereto. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to any members, trustees, officers, directors or any other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make distributions and payments in furtherance of the purposes set forth above. No substantial part of the Corporation's activity shall be for the carrying on of a program of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, except as otherwise provided in Code Section 501(h) (or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Revenue Laws); and the Corporation shall not participate in or interfere or intervene with (including the publication or distribution of statements regarding) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from US federal income taxation under Code Section 501(c)(3) (or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Revenue Laws) or any organization, contributions to which are deductible under Code Section 170(c)(2) (or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Revenue Laws). The Corporation shall have no capital stock, pay no dividends, and distribute no part of its net income or assets to any members, trustees, officers, directors or any other private persons, and the private property of any members, trustees, officers, directors or any other private person shall not be liable for the debts of the Corporation. In particular, but without limitation of the generality of the foregoing paragraph, during such time as the Corporation may be considered a private foundation as defined in Code Section 509(a), (or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Revenue Laws), it shall not: fail to distribute its income for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by Code Section 4942 (or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Revenue Laws); engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Code Section 4941(d) (or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Revenue Laws); retain any excess business holding as defined in Code Section 4943(c) (or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Revenue Laws); make any investment in such manner as to subject it to tax under Code Section 4944 (or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Revenue Laws); or make any taxable expenditures as defined in Code Section 4945(d) (or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Revenue Laws).

ARTICLE IX DISSOLUTION

Upon dissolution of the corporation, all of its assets remaining after payment for all liabilities of the Corporation, including cost and expenses of such dissolution shall be utilized exclusively for the exempt purposes of the Corporation or distributed to an organization described in and qualified under Code Section 501(c)(3) (or the corresponding provisions of any future Revenue Law), as shall be selected by the last Board of Directors of the Corporation. None of the assets will be distributed to any member, trustee, officer, director or any other private person. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the court of common pleas of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
