- A. The Corporation shall not possess or exercise any power or authority, whether expressly, by interpretation or by operation of law, that would pose a substantial risk of preventing it at any time from qualifying and continuing to qualify as a corporation described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (hereinafter referred to as the "Code"), contributions to which are deductible for federal income tax purposes, nor shall the Corporation engage directly or indirectly in any activity that would pose a substantial risk of causing the loss of such qualification under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.
- B. At no time shall the Corporation engage in any activities that are unlawful under the law of the United States, the State or any other jurisdiction where any of its activities are carried on.
- C. No part of the assets or net earnings of the Corporation shall ever be used, nor shall the Corporation ever be organized or operated, for purposes that are not exclusively charitable or educational within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.
- D. The Corporation shall never be operated for the primary purpose of carrying on a trade or business for profit.
- E. The Corporation shall not carry on propaganda or otherwise attempt to influence legislation to an extent that would disqualify it for tax exemption under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code by reason of attempting to influence legislation. Nor shall the Corporation, directly or indirectly, participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.
- F. No solicitation of contributions to the Corporation shall be made, and no gift, bequest or devise to the Corporation shall be accepted, upon any condition or limitation that would pose a substantial risk of causing the Corporation to lose its federal income tax exemption.
- G. The property of this corporation is irrevocably dedicated to charitable and educational purposes meeting the requirements for exemption provided by Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, and no part of the net earnings, current or accumulated, of the Corporation shall ever inure to the benefit of any private individual.
- H. All references contained in these Articles to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or to "the Code," shall be deemed to refer to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, and the Regulations established thereto, as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended. Any reference contained in these Articles to a specific section or chapter of the Code shall be deemed to refer to such section or chapter and the Regulations established pursuant thereto as they may now exist or as they may hereafter be amended, and to any corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law and any Regulations established pursuant thereto.

ARTICLE SEVEN

Disposition of the Corporation's Assets on Dissolution

Upon the termination, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation in any manner or for any reason, voluntary or involuntary, its assets, if any, remaining after payment or provision for payment of all liabilities of the Corporation shall be distributed to one or more organizations that are organized and operated exclusively for charitable and educational purposes and meeting the requirements for exemption and which have established its tax exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

ARTICLE EIGHT
