ARTICLE III

PURPOSE, INUREMENT OF BENEFITS, DISTRIBUTION OF ASSETS AND PROPERTY UPON DISSOLUTION

Purpose: The Corporation is organized primarily for charitable purposes, as well as for educational, philanthropic, religious and cultural purposes, including the making of distributions to other organizations for religious, charitable, educational, scientific, and literary purposes, but only to the extent and in such manner that such purpose constitute exclusively charitable, educational, scientific, literary and religious purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) and also Sections 170(c)(2)(B), 2055(a)(2) and 2522(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or the corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax law. More specifically, the Corporation is organized for the charitable purpose of providing easier access to behavioral and mental healthcare providers for who are distressed or in need of the services, within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) and also Sections 170(c)(2)(B), 2055(a)(2) and 2522(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or the corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax law. The Corporation shall not undertake any activities that are contrary to the legal system of the United States of America. All purposes and activities of the Corporation shall be consistent with the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) and also Sections 170(c)(2)(B), 2055(a)(2) and 2522(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or the corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax law.

Inurement of Benefits. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth above. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements), any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation or the laws of any jurisdiction otherwise applicable, the Corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on and shall not make any distribution not permitted to be made (a) by a Corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provision of any subsequent federal tax law, or (b) by a Corporation contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2), 2055(a)(2) and 2522(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or the corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax law.

Distribution of Assets and Property upon Dissolution. Upon dissolution, the assets and property of the Corporation shall be distributed to the Florida Not for Profit Corporation, presently known as, Vous Church, Inc. [Florida Business Identification Number N15000010225], as long as the above-named entity is exempt under Section 501(c)(3) and also Sections 170(c)(2)(B), 2055(a)(2) and 2522(a)(2) of the Code.
