Article III

The Corporation is formed for the following purposes:

(A) The Corporation is organized exclusively for educational, sport, religious and charitable purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under § 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

(B) More specifically, but not by way of limitation, the educational and religious purposes of the Corporation shall include developing and operating one or more private middle schools and secondary high schools, each with the purpose of providing formal instruction to a defined, regularly enrolled, group of students through the use of full-time and part-time duly and properly credentialed teachers and teaching assistants, with a formal curriculum focusing on both academic and religious information. Each school shall operate at its own physical facilities and location, which may be owned or leased, within the State of Florida. The religious components of both the curriculum and programs of each school shall be based upon an understanding of the Christian faith in its teaching and learning. The educational program of each school shall be founded upon the infallible Word of God.

All professional educational personnel shall be required to sign a statement of subscription indicating both their agreement with the Aim High International Corp.'s Articles of Incorporation, Mission Statement, Philosophy of Education and Statement of Faith and their agreement to instruct within the framework of the principles outlined therein.

The Corporation shall also have as its purposes: (i) in cooperation with parents to educate children to understand, reclaim, and affirm all of God's creation to his glory, and (ii) develop and maintain such other Christian educational and religious ministries as may be determined by the Board of Directors.

(C) Each school operated by the Corporation shall not discriminate, in its policies or practices, against any person on the basis of race, color, nationality or ethnic origin. Neither shall any school discriminate on the basis of race, color, nationality or ethnic origin in the admission of students; the rights, privileges, programs and activities made available to students; the administration and educational policies; any scholarships and loan programs; or athletic or other school administered programs or events.

(D) No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in these Articles of Incorporation. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or against any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a Corporation exempt from federal income tax under § 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a Corporation, contributions to which are deductible under § 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

(E) The Corporation is formed upon non-stock basis.

The corporation is to be financed under the following general plan:

the corporation will be financed by tuition & fees, contributions, gifts, grants, donations, bequests, devises, benefactors, other voluntary transfers of property, and the income generated therefrom.

(F) Duration

As a Florida nonprofit corporation, the corporation has perpetual life.

(G) The corporation shall issue no stock. Its assets and net earnings shall be devoted exclusively to the purposes provided in Article II hereof. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article II. Notwithstanding any other provision of the document, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

(H) Upon dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Directors, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all liabilities, shall arrange for the assets of the corporation to be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose, and as determined by the Board of Directors. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court in the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

(I) Indemnification

1. A volunteer director or volunteer officer of this corporation is not personally liable to the corporation for monetary damages for a breach of such director's or officer's fiduciary duty, except Liability for any of the following::

- i. The amount of a financial benefit received by a director or volunteer officer to which he or she is not entitled;
- ii. Intentional infliction of harm on the corporation, its shareholder, or members;
- iii. A violation of Section 551 of the Act;
- iv. An intentional criminal act; or
- v. A liability imposed under section 497(a).

- i. The volunteer was acting or reasonably believed he or she was acting within the scope of his or her authority;
- ii. The volunteer was acting in good faith;
- iii. The volunteer's conduct did not amount to gross negligence or willful and wanton misconduct;
- iv. The volunteer's conduct was not an intentional tort

3. The corporation assumes all liability to any person other than the corporation for all acts or omissions of a volunteer director incurred in the good faith performance of the volunteer director's duties.

4. This Article shall be construed broadly to provide immunity to the fullest extent permitted by law as of the date of these Articles, or by any subsequent amendment to such law or any future law permitting greater immunity. Any repeal or modification of this Article by the corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of any volunteer director or volunteer officer of the corporation existing at the time of such acts or omissions occurring before such repeal or modification.

(J) Amendments of Articles of Incorporation

Amendments to these Articles shall be adopted upon receiving the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office.
