E. If amending or adding additional Articles, enter change(s) here:
(attach additional sheets, if necessary). (Be specific)

The following is added at the end of Art III: This corporation is organized exclusively for charitable purposes within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3), namely: To operate one or more housing projects that will relieve poor and distressed populations, through the provision of housing to those who could not otherwise afford it. When appropriate, it will support the needy by providing other kinds of interventions to help residents achieve positive goals. It will combat community deterioration by improving the quality of the available housing in the area. When feasible, it will distribute all manner of resources to the needy. It will work to lessen neighborhood tensions, eliminate prejudice and discrimination, defend human rights and bring about a more compassionate, enlightened and harmonious society.

This corporation will not pay dividends of any kind, however, it will pay reasonable compensation for services provided, work done, resources purchased, or properties acquired in order to carry out its mission. The officers listed in the Articles of incorporation will serve as the corporation's initial directors. Upon the filing of these articles of amendment, the directors will be empowered to adopt bylaws and other documents, to appoint corporate officers and to authorize the president or the other officers to open bank accounts, file forms with government agencies and undertake of any other action required for the operation of this corporation. Such decisions may be taken through in person meetings, meeting by telephone, or by written and signed (including e-signed) consent. Responses sent from an email belonging to a director shall be considered the equivalent of a written and signed consent.

In the event of this corporations dissolution, the directors will - after clearing all debts and liabilities - distribute any remaining funds or assets to other corporations recognized as charities under section 501(c)(3) that have goals similar to those of this corporation.

The date of each amendment(s) adoption: _____, if other than the date this document was signed.

Effective date if applicable: _____
(no more than 90 days after amendment file date)

Note: If the date inserted in this block does not meet the applicable statutory filing requirements, this date will not be listed as the document's effective date on the Department of State's records.
