(attach additional sheets, if necessary). (Be specific)

Article VIII: No director or officer shall be personally liable to the Corporation for breach of any duty owed to the Corporation provision shall not relieve a director or officer from liability for any breach of duty based upon an act or omission (a) in breach of such person's duty of loyalty to the Corporation. (b) not in good faith or involving a knowing violation of law, or
(c) resulting in receipt by such person of an improper personal benefit.

Article IX: Upon dissolution of the Corporation, after payment of all debts, all of the Corporation's remaining assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Laws, or shall be distributed to the Federal government, or to a state or local government for public purposes. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction, in the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes.

Article X: No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a Corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Laws, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code, or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Laws.

Article XI: If in any taxable year of the Corporation, the Corporation is characterized for federal income tax purposes as a "private foundation" under Section 509(a) of the Code, the Corporation shall: (1) distribute its income for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942 of the Code, or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law; (2) refrain from engaging in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Code, or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law; (3) refrain from retaining any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Code, or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law; (4) refrain from making any investments in such manner as to subject it to tax under Section 4944 of the Code, or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law; and (5) refrain from making any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Code, or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law.
