Department of Corporations

Dear Ms. Cushing,

I have attached the revision to the amendment as requested. (Letter: 422A00022731). It was obviously my error in submitting the incorrect form. This is my first attempt at setting up a non-profit organization, and I was not familiar with the process.

This is a new program we are embarking on to help students achieve a more beneficial career through a career guidance and mentorship program.

We had originally planned on implementing this program early in 2023, however, due to my mistake, we have to reconsider a new date much later than anticipated.

I filed the original amendment back in late June and only received your letter two days ago. I appreciate the amount of work involved and the backlog that ensued due to Covid.

I am asking for your consideration in getting approval for this refiling at the earliest opportunity.

Thanking you in anticipation.

Regards
