residents of West Augustine, as those categories are defined by the United States Housing Act of 1937, as it is amended from time to time.

3. To encourage and assist the efforts of very low, low, and moderate-income residents of West Augustine toward economic and social self-determination.
 4. To expand and maintain the housing opportunities of very low, low, and moderate-income residents of West Augustine.
 5. To promote neighborhood stability and improvements of living conditions in the very low, low, and moderate-income neighborhoods of West Augustine.
 6. To provide or to materially assist in provisions of housing for very low, low, and moderate-income persons in West Augustine who would otherwise be unable to afford housing.
 7. To engage in and encourage community-based development activities and projects for the benefit of very low, low, and moderate-income residents of West Augustine, including, but not limited to:
 - a. Ownership, conservation and management of land, buildings and other natural resources for the development of housing, employment opportunities, parklands and/or open space;
 - b. Initiation and review of neighborhood planning efforts;
 - c. Creation and retention of housing opportunities; and
 - d. Sponsorship of educational seminars on housing and economic development.
 8. To foster and promote community-wide interest and involvement in the provision of adequate, affordable housing for very low, low, and moderate-income residents of West Augustine, and the improvement of the general quality of life in West Augustine for all residents.
 9. To encourage and assist the development and operation of neighborhood-based organizations which are or have been established for the charitable purposes described above.
- B. The general purposes and powers are to exercise all rights and powers conferred on nonprofit public benefit corporations under the laws of Florida, and s. 501(c)(3), provided, however, that this Corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the primary purposes of this Corporation.

ARTICLE XI

COMPLIANCE

- A. This Corporation is organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3), of the Internal Revenue Code. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (i) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), or (ii) by a corporation, contributions by which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).
- B. No substantial part of the activities of this Corporation shall consist of the carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, nor shall this Corporation participate in or intervene in any political campaign (including publishing or distribution of statements) on behalf of (or in opposition to) any candidate for public office.

ARTICLE X

DISSOLUTION

Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Corporation, distribute all of the Corporation's assets to such organization or organizations with a similar corporate purpose as the Corporation, particularly concerning West Augustine and its residents, and which is or are organized and operated exclusively for charitable, informational, educational, cultural, historical, and scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law, as the Board of Directors shall determine.

ARTICLE XI

AMENDMENT

These Articles of Incorporation shall not be amended except with the vote or written consent of two-thirds of the Directors of the Corporation.

An amendment of the Articles of Incorporation may be proposed by a simple majority of either the Board of Directors or Membership of the Corporation. The entire Membership of the Corporation shall be duly notified of such proposal and such notification shall include notification of the closing date of voting as determined by the proposing body to allow reasonable time for Members to study the proposal and comment before the Directors vote.

ARTICLE XII

LIABILITY

No Director shall be personally liable to the Corporation or the Members, if any, for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a Director, except that this Article shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a Director to the Corporation or the Members, if any, for monetary damages for: (a) any breach of the Director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or the Members, if any; (b) acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; (c) acts specified in Section 617.0831, Fla. Stat., as amended from time to time; or (d) any transaction from which the Director directly or indirectly derived an improper personal benefit.

If the Florida Not for Profit Corporation Act is hereafter amended to authorize the further elimination or limitation of the liability of Directors, then the liability of a Director, in addition to the limitation on personal liability provided in this Article will be further eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Florida Not for Profit Corporation Act. Any repeal or modification of any portion of this Article will be prospective only, and will not adversely affect any right or protection of a Director existing at the time of such repeal or modification.
