ARTICLE III. PURPOSES

This organization is a nonprofit cooperative corporation following the nondiscriminatory requirements of organizations that are tax-exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. This ministry shall be organized to:

Allow This ministry and its leaders to help ladies of all ages through the love of Jesus Christ. Our ministry assists its participants and their families in going through life with the God divined connectivity, security, and Biblical life-instruction that come from studying the Word and growing in life and relationships together. Our goal is to improve the quality of your life significantly for all through Jesus Christ, counseling, education, deliverance, love, personal coaching and mentorship.

It shall be recognized as a Christian Ministry thus receiving its covering for nonprofit status under the jurisdiction of the State of Florida, as non-profit corporation. It is the express purpose of this Ministry, to promote unity and to further the Gospel of Jesus Christ by prayerful support and other means at the ministry disposal. The ministry is organized and shall be operated exclusively for religious, charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Ministry's purposes also include the limited participation of the Ministry in any other activities, including taxable activities, but only to the extent the activities would be permitted by a tax-exempt organization. More particularly, but without limitation, the purposes of this Ministry are: to collect and disburse any and all necessary funds for the maintenance of said Ministry and the accomplishment of its purpose within the State of Florida and elsewhere; to make distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as amended; and to promote, encourage, and foster any other similar religious, charitable and educational activities; to accept, hold, invest, reinvest and administer any gifts, legacies, bequests, devises, funds and property of any sort or nature, and to use, expend, or donate the income or principal thereof for, and to devote the same to, the foregoing purposes of the Ministry; and to do any and all lawful acts and things which may be necessary, useful, suitable, or proper for the furtherance of accomplishment of the purposes of this Ministry; provided, however, no act may be performed which would violate Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as it now exists or as it may hereafter be amended. Except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws and in order to carry out the above-stated purposes, the Ministry shall have all those powers set forth in the Code, as it now exists or as it may hereafter be amended. Moreover, the Ministry shall have all implied powers necessary and proper to carry out its express powers. The powers of the Ministry to promote the purposes set out above are limited and restricted in the following manner: The Ministry shall not pay dividends and no part of the net earnings of the ministry shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its organizers, officers or other private persons, except that the Ministry shall be authorized and empowered to make payments and distributions (including reasonable compensation for services rendered to or for the Ministry) in furtherance of its purposes as set forth in the Certificate of Formation or these Bylaws. No substantial part of the activities of the Ministry shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting Section 2. Regular Body Business Meeting. Notice of the annual ministry body business meeting will be mailed to all members of This ministry at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of the meeting.

Section 3. Emergency Meeting. The leadership or members can call for an emergency ministry body business meeting upon approval of the Executive Director. It shall include each minister member; a maximum of four (4) voting members, Executive Director and/or board of directors.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
In compliance with Chapter 617, F.S., (Not for Profit)

Article XII. DEPARTMENTAL MINISTRIES

The Executive Director shall be authorized to establish a variety of departmental ministries, as is deemed necessary and appropriate by the Ministry Network. Departmental ministries shall function according to guidelines established by the Executive Director in consultation with the Ministry Network. Departmental guidelines shall be recorded in a Ministry Network policy manual. The establishment of departments and departmental policies shall be approved by the Ministry Network. All such departments and departmental leadership shall be amenable to the Ministry Network.

ARTICLE XIII. REPORTS

All Ministry officers' reports are to be prepared in printed form and accessible to minister members and delegates fifteen (15) days in advance of the Ministry regular and annual meetings. Oral reading of said reports may be omitted at the request of the Ministry council meeting leaders in session.

ARTICLE XIV. RESOLUTIONS

Section 1. All resolutions for presentation to the Ministry Council, except emergency measures, must be submitted to the Ministry office in writing, not less than sixty (60) days before regular or annual meetings. The resolutions shall be accessible in printed form to the members with the annual report. Exceptions: a. This does not apply to business growing out of the Ministry Meetings just prior to the meeting. b. Emergency measures may be accepted at the sole discretion of the Resolutions Committee.

Section 2. A projected and or hard copy shall be distributed to those present if requested from the floor or deemed advisable by the ministry director. The author of the resolution shall sign it and shall be the first to speak on it should the executive Director deem it necessary.

ARTICLE XV. AMENDMENTS

Amendments to the Bylaws may be made at any regular or special meeting of the Ministry, provided the amendments are submitted to the Ministry office in writing not less than ninety (90) days prior to the regular or annual meeting. The Ministry shall forward the amendment to the Resolutions Committee which shall be empowered to review the amendment for possible conflicts with the Statement of Fundamental truths or other portions of the constitution. Should there be no such conflict the amendment shall be presented as a resolution to the council. A majority vote shall be required to adopt the resolution.

Article XVI. RESOLUTION REGARDING SIGNATURE AUTHORITY

Contracts. Only the Executive Director is authorize of this Ministry to enter into contracts or execute and deliver instruments in the name of and on behalf of this Ministry. Such authority may be general or confined to specific activities, except that no officer or agent of this Ministry may incur indebtedness in excess of the budgetary allowance for a specific activity without first obtaining written approval of the board.

Checks, Drafts, etc. All checks, drafts, or other orders for the payment of funds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness, issued in the name of this ministry shall be signed by Executive Director.

ARTICLE XVII - PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

The rules contained in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern the proceedings of Ministry in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with the Articles of Incorporation of Ministry, these bylaws, any special rules of order that Ministry may adopt, and any statutes applicable to this organization that do not authorize the provisions of these bylaws to take precedence. The parliamentary authority of Ministry shall be adopted by each regional conference and member ministry.

Article XVIII Conflict of Interest Policy

The purpose of the Conflict of Interest Policy is to protect the Ministry's interest when it is contemplating entering into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interest of an "interested person" or might result in a possible excess benefit transaction. This policy is intended to supplement, but not replace, any applicable state and federal laws governing conflicts of interest applicable to nonprofit corporations.

In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an interested person must disclose the existence and nature of the financial interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the directors and members of committees with board-delegated powers who are considering the proposed transaction or arrangement.

If the board or committee has reasonable cause to believe that an interested person has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform that person of the basis for such belief and afford him/her an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.

If, after hearing the person's response and making further investigation as may be warranted by the circumstances, the board or committee determines the person has, in fact, failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.

ARTICLE XVIII - DISSOLUTION

In the event of the dissolution of this Ministry, to the extent allowed under applicable law, after all debts and liabilities of Ministry have been paid, all the assets of Ministry shall be distributed
