In furtherance of its purpose, the Corporation will serve underprivileged children who attend faith-based private educational institutions that have limited resources to offer effective sport programs for their community. We work with parents, educators, administrators, and community members of these educational institutions including, but not limited to, pre-schools, elementary schools, middle schools, high schools, K-12 grade schools, childcare centers, camps, and after-school programs. Our charitable endeavor is to improve sport programs at these educational institutions, including upgrading sport fields, sport courts, gymnasiums, playground games, and sports apparel and equipment. In many cases, the charity will introduce new sport programs to children attending these educational institutions. Our aspirations are global, but we aim to improve one community at a time. We believe the spirit of sport contributes to a child's mental, physical, spiritual, and emotional well-being, and instills character that may last a lifetime.
