Attachment A

Articles of Incorporation of: Michael D. Bonner, Never Say Can't, Inc.

Statement of Purpose

The Corporation's primary purpose is educational; Further, the Corporation's purposes are limited to those exempt purposes in section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, and it shall not engage, other than as an insubstantial part of its activities, in activities that are not in furtherance of one or more of those purposes.

Internal Revenue Service 401 (c)(3) Statement

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth above, and incorporated by reference into Article III of the Articles of Incorporation. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

Election of Directors

a. Initial Board Each person named in the Articles of Incorporation as a member of the Board of Directors will hold office until the next annual meeting of the Board of Directors and until such person's successor is elected and qualified or until such person's earlier resignation, removal from office, or death.

b. Annual Election of Board At each annual meeting of the Board of Directors, the incumbent Board of Directors will elect a successor Board of Directors by plurality vote. Each director so elected will hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting and until such director's successor has been elected and qualified or until such director's earlier resignation, removal from office, or death.
