This corporation is established exclusively for charitable religious purposes within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code section 501(c)(3), namely: to found, maintain, and operate a Synagogue for Orthodox Jewish worship at or in the vicinity of Rashbi's grave in Meron Israel. There it will provide worship services, sacred meals, musical praise, religious education classes, spiritual guidance, life-cycle celebrations, inspirational events, and community outreach activities to inspire and uplift the community. Included in the idea of worship is the continual study, meditation and contemplation of the Sacred Texts of Judaism, most notably the secret teachings of Rashbi found in the sublime Holy Zohar as understood by the subsequent Lurianic tradition and its offshoots. These acts of worship will be carried out by a group of contemplative scholars who have set aside the many concerns of this life to focus their hearts and souls on spiritual realities. They will perform special prayers, meditations and activities to repair and uplift the world and bring great blessing into the world.

The synagogue will carry out its activities according to Torah-Halachic tradition contained in the Code of Jewish Law (Shulchan Aruch) by Rabbi Yosef Karo along with all subsequent commentaries and responsa as understood by the synagogue's Rabbi, Yaakov Yisrael Kohen. The Rabbi has been appointed according to Jewish religious law. He has final authority in all matters pertaining to Jewish law, spirituality, or ethics, including the sole prerogative to determine which issues are matters of Jewish law spirituality, or ethics and thus require his decision.

The synagogue will carry out works of charity to improve the community in Israel and in the US. The contemplatives will be eligible to receive subsistence allowances from the synagogue. The synagogue will carry out any additional activities which are seen by the Rabbi and directors as being helpful in enhancing the well-being of persons, families, and communities.

No part of the earnings of this corporation will inure for the benefit of its directors or officers and it will not distribute dividends to anyone. However, it will pay reasonable compensation for services provided, work done; resources purchased, or properties acquired in order to carry out its mission. It will rent or purchase real property in order to provide a suitable facility for worship and other activities. It is empowered to provide a parsonages for the Rabbi and his family and for the contemplatives and their families, along with all the customary furnishings, both communal and personal. It will supply all the resources and physical constructions required according to Orthodox Jewish Law and tradition, including but not limited to, Religious Articles, Kosher Food, Meeting Rooms, Social Halls, Kitchens and
