Articles of Incorporation of Jewish Children's Library Fund, Inc.

The undersigned, for the purpose of forming a nonprofit corporation under Florida Not-for-Profit Corporation Act, Florida Statutes Chapter 617, makes and adopts the following articles of incorporation:

Article 1 Name

The name of corporation is Jewish Children's Library Fund, Inc.

Article 2 Principle Office

The corporation shall maintain a principle office in the State of Florida and such additional offices as the board of directors may from time to time establish. The initial principle office and the initial mailing address of the corporation is 9600 NW 42nd Street, Coral Springs, FL 33065.

Article 3 Initial Registered Office and Agent

The street address of the initial registered office of the corporation is 9600 NW 42nd Street, Coral Springs, FL 33065. The name of its initial registered agent at that address is Richard Rockford.

Article 4 No Members

The corporation shall not have members, and shall not issue membership certificates. The corporation shall not issue shares of stock.

Article 5 Not-for-Profit

The corporation is a not-for-profit corporation under Chapter 617, Florida Statutes. The corporation is not formed for pecuniary profit. No part of the income or assets of the corporation is distributable to or shall inure for the benefit of its directors or officers or any of its members, if it ever has members, except to the extent permissible under these articles and under applicable law including but not limited to the United States Internal Revenue Code § 501(c)(3) thereof. All references in these articles to sections of the Code shall be considered references to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as from time to time amended, and to the corresponding provisions of any similar law subsequently enacted, and to all regulations from time to time adopted in the implementation thereof.

Article 6 Duration

FILED
22 SEP -6 PM 1:26
CLERK OF DISTRICT COURT
STATE OF FLORIDA

The duration (term) of the corporation is perpetual.

Article 7 Purposes

The corporation is organized, and shall be operated exclusively for charitable and educational purposes, including but not limited to helping provide funding for the purchase of library books, periodicals, comics, videos, audio, media, and other educational tools, to local communities in South Florida, as well as communities all over the world on a nondiscriminatory basis to promote learning and understanding and to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the laws of the State of Florida. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles the Corporation is organized exclusively for one or more the purposes specified in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) and shall not carry out any activities not permitted to be carried on by a Corporation exempt from Federal Income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the IRC.

Article 8 Powers

Solely for the above purposes, the corporation shall have the following powers:

A. To exercise all rights and powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida on nonprofit corporations, including but not limited to those set forth in Florida Statutes Chapter 617 and the following powers: to acquire by bequest, devise, gift, grant, donate, contribute, purchase, lease, or otherwise any property of any sort or nature without limitation as to its amount or value, and to hold invest, reinvest, manage, use, apply, employ, sell, expend, disburse, lease, mortgage, convey, option, grant, donate or otherwise dispose of the property and the income, principle and proceeds of the property.

B. To engage in and transact any other lawful activity, solely in furtherance of the above purposes, for which nonprofit corporations may be incorporated under the Florida Not-for-Profit Corporation Act, and any successor or amendment to the Florida Not-for-Profit Corporation Act.

C. To do any other things as are incidental to the powers of the corporation, or necessary or desirable in order to accomplish the purposes of the corporation.

Article 9 Limitation on Private Inurement

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure directly or indirectly to the benefit of or be distributable to its members (if the corporation ever has any), directors, trustee or officers of the Corporation or any private individual and no member, trustee, officer of the Corporation or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the Corporation's assets upon dissolution of the Corporation. However, the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered to or for the Corporation, and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article 7 (Purposes) of these Articles.

Article 10 Tax-Exempt Status

It is intended that the corporation shall have and continue to have the status of a corporation that is exempt from federal income taxation as an organization described in Code § 501(c)(3), and which is other than a private foundation as defined in Code § 509. These articles shall be construed accordingly, and all powers and activities of the corporation shall be limited accordingly. No substantial part of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation except as otherwise provided by section 501(h) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) or participating in or intervening in (including the publication or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidates for public office.

Article 11 Dissolution

In the event of liquidation, dissolution, or winding up of the Corporation, whether voluntary, involuntary, or by operation of law, the board of directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, distribute all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for charitable or educational purposes in such manner and to such qualified organization or organizations as the board of directors shall determine. Any of the assets not so distributed shall be distributed in accordance with the direction of any court having jurisdiction in the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for the above purposes of the corporation or to a qualified organization or organizations as the court shall determine. For purposes of this article, an organization is a "qualified organization" only if, at the time of receiving the assets, it is operated exclusively for the purposes described in Code § 170(c)(2)(b) and is described in Code § 509(a)(1), (2) or (3).

Article 12 Board of Directors

There shall be a board of directors consisting of at least three individuals. The initial directors are elected by the incorporators. After that, each director shall be elected by majority vote of the board directors in the manner, and at the times set forth in the bylaws. Any directors may be removed by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the board of directors.

Article 13 Officers

The officers of the corporation may consist of a president, one or more vice presidents, a secretary, a treasurer, and any other officers and assistant officers as may be provided for in the bylaws or by resolution of the board of directors. Each officer shall be elected by majority vote of the board of directors (and may be removed by majority vote of the board of directors) at such a time, and in such a manner, as may be prescribed by the bylaws or by law.

Article 14
Incorporators and Initial Board of Directors

The Incorporators shall serve as the initial Board of Directors of the corporation. The name and street address of each incorporator and initial director is as follows:

Rockford, Richard	9600 NW 42nd Street Coral Springs, FL 33065
Rockford, Chaya	9600 NW 42nd Street Coral Springs, FL 33065
Levi, David	3501 Brokenwoods Dr. Coral Springs, FL 33065

Article 15
Bylaws

The Bylaws of the corporation are to be made and adopted by the board of directors, and may be altered, amended or rescinded by the board of directors.

Article 16
Amendment

The corporation reserves the right to amend or repeal any provision contained in these articles of incorporation or any amendment to them.

Article 17
Indemnification and Civil Liability Immunity

The corporation shall indemnify each director and officer, including former directors and officers, to the fullest extent allowed by law, including but not limited to Florida Statutes Chapter 617. It is intended that the corporation be an organization of which the officers and directors are immune from civil liability to the extent provided under Florida Statutes Chapter 617 and other similar laws.

Article 18
Incorporator
