Article III

Purpose of the Corporation

The purpose of this corporation is to provide financial, counseling, and advocacy support and services to people in the community whose annual earnings disqualify them from receiving State and Federal assistance for the basic necessities of housing, food and clothing, but their annual earnings are insufficient to meet cost of living expenses in the State of Florida.

The corporation desires to assist in eviction prevention by supplying the finances to pay off past due rents and mortgages for applicants who seek the services of the organization. Applicants must commit to 40 hours per month for 12 months, of financial, mental health and well-being counseling, where accountability partnership can be developed. This support gives applicants an opportunity to reset their lives by eliminating the stress of finding additional resources to maintain a reasonable basic standard of living.

The corporation shall be a not for profit, charitable organization created for the purpose of helping individuals in need without regard to religion, color, race, sex, physical limitations, sexual preferences or any other characteristic by which human beings are identified, categorize or characterize.

ARTICLE IV

Manner of Election or Appointment

All initial officers and directors shall be appointed by, or elected, by an affirmative vote, in person or by proxies, of a majority of all the incorporators.

All subsequent officers and directors shall be elected by an affirmative vote, in person or by proxies, of a majority of ALL the directors of what constitute a full Board of Directors.

The incorporators shall retain VETO powers by which they can prohibit any action and/or decision of the Board of Directors by an affirmative vote, in person or by proxies, of a majority of all the incorporators and also, by an affirmative vote of the majority of all the incorporators, shall be able to vote remove or elect any and all officers and directors even against a majority or unanimous vote of the then elected, or appointed, officers and directors.

ARTICLE V

Directors and Officers

The initial Officers and Directors shall be appointed by the incorporators after the corporation have been granted tax exemption status under the Internal Revenue Code Section 501 (c)(3) as a non profit organization and is ready to commence legal activities.

The powers of this Corporation shall be exercised, its property controlled, and its affairs conducted by the Board of Directors. The number and title of the members of the Board of Directors may change from time to time as determined by an affirmative vote, in person or by proxies, of a majority of what constitute a full Board of Directors at the time of the action; but shall never be less than three or more than fifteen.

The term that Officers and Directors are elected, or appointed, to serve shall be determined and regulated by the bylaws, as amended from time to time, but shall never be less than one year nor more than seven.

Any Officer or Director may be demoted, removed or elected at any time by an affirmative vote, in person or by proxies, of a majority of ALL the directors of what constitute a full Board of Directors at the time of the action. In the event of a tie then the faction with which the President of the Board is voting shall prevail. If the President of the Board is the Officer being demoted, removed or elected then the faction with the larger number of incorporators shall prevail. If there are no incorporators on the Board at the time the action is being taken, then an additional vote of all the incorporators shall be taken, at the same or at a different place and time, and an affirmative vote, in person or by proxies, of a majority of ALL the incorporators shall be binding.

director, employee, agent, former officer, former director, former employee or former agent met the standard of conduct set forth by the Board of Directors.

The indemnification and advances of attorney's fees and expenses for an officer, director, employee, agent, former officer, former director, former employee or former agent shall apply when such persons are, or were, serving at the Corporation's request as an officer, director, employee or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or any other enterprise, whether for profit or not, as well as in their official capacity with the corporation. The Corporation may also pay or reimburse the reasonable attorney's fees and expenses incurred by an officer, director, employee, agent, former officer, former director, former employee or former agent who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of the proceeding.

The Corporation may also purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any individual arising from the individual's status as an officer, director, employee, agent, former officer, former director, former employee or former agent of the Corporation whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify said individual against the same liability under the law.

All references in these Articles of Incorporation are deemed to include any amendment or successor thereto. Nothing contained in these Articles of Incorporation shall limit or preclude the exercise of any right relating to indemnification or advance of attorney's fees and expenses to any person who is or was an officer, director, employee or agent of the Corporation, or the ability of the Corporation to otherwise indemnify or advance expenses to any such person by contract or any other manner.

If any word, clause or sentence of the foregoing provisions regarding indemnification or advancement of the attorney's fees and expenses shall be held invalid as contrary to law or public, it shall be severable and the remaining provisions shall not be otherwise affected. All references in these Articles of Incorporation to "officer", "director", "employee", "agent", "former officer", "former director", "former employee", or "former agent" shall include the heirs, estates, executors, administrators, descendants and personal representatives of any such persons.
