and architectural control of the residence Lots and Common Areas within that certain tract of property described in the Declaration. In addition, it is the Association's purpose to promote the health, safety, and welfare of the residents within the above-described property and any additions thereto as may hereafter be brought within the jurisdiction of this Association for this purpose to:

- a. Exercise all of the powers and privileges and perform all of the duties and obligations of the Association as set forth in the Declaration, and as the same may be amended from time to time as therein provided; said Declaration being incorporated herein as if set forth at length; and
- b. Sue and be sued and appear and defend in all actions and proceedings in its corporate name to the same extent as a natural person; and
- c. Enter into the Declaration and any Amendment(s) thereto and instruments referred to therein.
- d. Fix, levy, collect and enforce payment, by any lawful means, all charges or Assessments pursuant to the terms of the Declaration and pay all expenses in connection therewith and all office and other expenses incident to the conduct of the business of the Association, including all licenses, taxes, or governmental charges levied or imposed against the property of the Association; and
- e. Acquire (by gift, purchase or otherwise), own, hold, improve, build upon, operate, maintain, convey, sell, lease, transfer, dedicate for public use or otherwise dispose of real or personal property in connection with the affairs of the Association; and
- f. Borrow money, and with the assent of a majority vote at a meeting where a quorum is present, in person or proxy; and
- g. Dedicate, sell, or transfer all or any part of the Common Area to any public agency, authority or utility for such purposes and subject to such conditions as may be agreed to by the Members. No such dedication or transfer shall be effective unless an instrument has been signed by fifty percent (50%) of each class of Members, agreeing to such dedication, sale or transfer; and
- h. Participate in mergers and consolidations with other nonprofit corporations organized for the same purposes, or annex additional residential property and Common Area, provided such merger, consolidation or annexation shall have the assent of fifty percent (50%) of each class of Members; and
- i. Maintain, repair, replace, operate and manage the above-described Property and any improvements therein including the right to reconstruct improvements owned by the Association after casualty and to make further improvements of the Property or purchase additional property and improvements; and
- j. Enter into contracts for management, insurance coverage and maintenance and delegate all of the powers and duties of the Association except those the delegation of which may be required by the Declaration to have approval of the Board of Directors or Membership of the Association; and
