ORGANIZATION AND PURPOSE

The purpose of the Corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity, other than credit union business, for which a corporation may be organized under such law.

B. The Corporation is organized and shall be operated specifically for the purposes of (i) developing and promoting the exchange of ideas, experiences and practices pertaining to the improvement of human lives; (ii) taking aggressive action in support of those principles that will further the development of individual incentive; and (iii) taking any action necessary or appropriate to carry out the foregoing purposes.

C. Notwithstanding any of the above statements of purposes and powers, the Corporation (i) shall not have or exercise any power, or engage directly or indirectly in any activity, that would invalidate its status as a corporation that is exempt from federal income taxation as an organization described in section 501(c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code"), or (ii) shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the specific purposes of the Corporation.

PROVISIONS REGARDING THE DISTRIBUTION OF ASSETS ON DISSOLUTION

Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, assets shall be distributed to YPO, Inc., a New York not-for-profit corporation, or shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(6) of the Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine; which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
