ARTICLE III:

1. PURPOSE CLAUSE: The Corporation has been organized and at all times shall be operated for charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or comparable provisions of subsequent legislation (the "Code"). In particular, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Corporation has been organized to support people and communities in need, with a focus on education and disaster relief.

The Corporation is empowered to exercise all rights and powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida upon nonprofit corporations, including but without limitation:

- (i) To receive gifts, bequests and contributions, in any form, to collect dues, and to use, apply, invest and reinvest the principal and/or income therefrom or distribute the same for the Corporation's purposes;
- (ii) To receive and administer funds in order to further charitable, educational, scientific, or literary purposes and to lessen the financial burdens of government;
- (iii) To acquire, own, dispose of and deal with real and personal property and interests therein and to apply for gifts, grants, bequests, and devises and the proceeds thereof in furtherance of the purposes of the Corporation; and
- (iv) To do all such things as are incidental conducive to and attainment of the foregoing purposes of the Corporation.

The Corporation is, and will be, organized and operated exclusively for purposes described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

2. DISSOLUTION CLAUSE: Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, the Corporation's assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future Federal Tax Code, as determined by the Corporation's Board of Directors, or if the Board of Directors does not make such a determination, shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose.
