ARTICLE III PURPOSE

H23000068452 3

This corporation is founded exclusively for charitable religious purposes within the meaning of the IRS Code Sec 501(c)(3); namely: To establish, maintain and operate one or more Synagogues in the area of Orlando or elsewhere according to the Orthodox Jewish Rabbinic tradition and there to provide worship services, prayer meetings, religious instruction, spiritual guidance, religious education, inspirational events, cultural or social activities, celebrations, sacred feasts, lifecycle events, excursions, musical praise --along with any other activity that is seen by the directors or the Rabbi as being beneficial to the Jewish community or the general community. It will provide Jewish charity to the needy along with any other helpful services to the local communities as well as to all who seek Judaism's universal path for humanity.

This corporation will carry out all its activities according to Torah-Halachic tradition contained in the Code of Jewish Law (Shulchan Aruch) by Rabbis Yosef Karo and Moshe Isserles and subsequent commentaries and responsa, all as understood by the synagogue's Rabbi, Yisrael Abisror, who is the incorporator of this corporation. The Rabbi will be the final authority in all matters of Jewish Law, ethics and spirituality, including the sole prerogative to determine which issues are matters of Jewish Law, ethics or spirituality, thus requiring his decision.

This corporation will be empowered to pay salaries or wages, as well as to rent or buy personal or real property, in order to carry out its activities and provide a residence for the Rabbi and his family. This corporation shall not, except in an insubstantial way, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of its charitable religious purposes. It will not attempt to influence legislation in any way or participate in political campaigns of any sort. No part of the net earnings of this corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its directors, officers or any private person except that this corporation will be empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered, to work done, resources purchased or properties acquired that are seen by the directors to be in furtherance of its exempt purposes. This corporation is empowered to supply all the foods, religious items and physical constructions or properties required according to Jewish Law and tradition, including but not limited to, Religious Articles, Kosher Food, Ritual Immersion Pools, or transportation to any event or location which in the view of the Rabbi or the Jewish Law committee is required for the fulfillment of Religious Duties as understood in Jewish Law and tradition.

Upon the filing of these articles of incorporation with the Secretary of State, the Directors will be empowered to adopt bylaws and other related documents, to appoint corporate officers and to authorize them to open bank accounts, file forms with government agencies and undertake of any other action required for the operation of this corporation. The directors will adopt such decisions through in person meetings, telephonic communication, meetings via electronic media, written and signed consent, as well as by virtual signatures. Replies sent from emails belonging to directors shall be the equivalent of written signed consent.

Upon the dissolution of this corporation, the directors will --after clearing all debts and liabilities-- distribute all remaining assets to one or more organizations with similar exempt purposes recognized under section 501(c) (3) of the IRS Code.
