Articles of Incorporation of

SupportED, Inc.

A Florida Nonprofit Corporation

The undersigned, being competent to contract, does subscribe to these Articles of Incorporation and acts as Incorporator for the purpose of forming a not-for-profit Corporation under the laws of the State of Florida, and does hereby adopt the following Articles of Incorporation:

Article I Name

The Name of the Corporation is SupportED, Inc.

Article II Principal Office

The address of the principal office of the Corporation is 10285 Addison Way, #1202, Seminole, FL 33772, and the mailing address of the Corporation is 10285 Addison Way, #1202, Seminole, FL 33772.

Article III Purpose

The Corporation is organized and shall be operated exclusively for the charitable and educational purposes, within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, including, but not limited to, providing materials, resources and services to the teachers of Pinellas County Schools in order to lessen their financial responsibilities and improve their working conditions. Further such measures are to improve the academic achievements and educational opportunities of the students of Pinellas County Schools, particularly those in Title 1 schools.

Article IV Manner of Election

This corporation shall have three (3) directors initially. The number of directors may be increased or diminished from time to time, by an amendment of the By-Laws when such amendment is adopted by the Board of Directors but shall never be less than three (3). The Directors shall be elected as stated in the By-Laws of the Corporation. The Directors shall hold office for the first year of existence of the Corporation or until successors are elected. Directors shall be elected in accordance with the By-laws of the Corporation.

Article VIII Limitations

No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, any Director, Officer, or member of the Corporation, or any other private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the Corporation, and reasonable expenses may be paid thereto, affecting one or more of the Corporation's purposes), and no Director or Officer of the Corporation, or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets or dissolution of the Corporation. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall include the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislations, and the Corporation shall neither participate nor intervene (including the publication or distribution of statements) in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office, at any time.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by an organization exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue code and Regulations issued pursuant thereto as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended, or by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code and the Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

Article IX Dissolution of Assets

Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the Corporation exclusively for the purposes of the Corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any of such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the circuit court of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as the court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

Article X Duration

The term of existence of the Corporation is perpetual and the corporate existence will commence on the filing of these Articles by the Department of State.

Having been named as registered agent to accept service of process for the above stated corporation at the place designated in this certificate, I am familiar with and accept the appointment as registered agent and agree to act in this capacity
