ARTICLE IX: Miscellaneous Provisions

FIRST:

The corporation is organized and operated exclusively for educational and charitable purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as now in effect or as may hereafter amended ("the Code").

In furtherance thereof, the corporation may receive property by gift, bequest or devise, invest and reinvest the same, and apply the income and principal thereof, as the board of directors may from time to time determine, and engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act.

In furtherance of its corporate purposes, the corporation shall have all the general powers enumerated in section 617.0302 of the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act as now in effect or as may hereafter be amended, together with the power to solicit grants and contributions for such purposes.

SECOND:

There shall be at least three directors who shall be elected or appointed as provided by the bylaws of the corporation.

THIRD:

Provisions for the regulation of internal affairs of the corporation, including provisions for distribution of assets on dissolution or final liquidation, are as follows:

- A. This corporation is organized and operated exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Code.
- B. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its officers, trustees, directors or any other private person, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered to or for the corporation and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in these provisions.
- C. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall consist of carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation and the corporation shall not participate or intervene in any political campaign (including the publishing or distribution of statements) on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the corporation shall not directly or indirectly carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (i) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (ii) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Code or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
- D. Upon dissolution of the corporation, the board of directors, after paying or making provision for the payment of all the liabilities of the corporation, shall dispose of all the assets exclusively for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or distribute such assets to an organization or organizations which shall, at the time of such disposition, be organized and operated exclusively for charitable and/or educational purposes and which shall qualify as organizations exempt from taxation under section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or to the Federal, state or local government for a public purpose. In no event shall any of such assets or property be distributed to any member, director or officer, or to any private individual.
