The primary purpose of the corporation is to receive and administer funds for relief, charitable, educational, religious,
or scientific purposes.

a. To promote and provide relief, assistance, or education, including scholarships, in connection with relief, health, educational and charitable services and related contributions to organizations and individuals engaged in relief, medical, health, educational, or charitable services, and related activities and individuals in need of relief, health, educational or charitable services or other assistance, located within or outside of the United States.

b. To promote any other activity within the meaning of Section 501(c) (3) of the Code.

c. To engage in lawful and permitted services that may be incidental or reasonably necessary to accomplish the foregoing purposes and to have and exercise all other powers and authority now or hereafter conferred upon non-profit corporations under the laws of the State of Florida, provided, however, that the corporation shall not engage in any activities or exercise any such power and authority which are not in furtherance of its exempt purposes under Section 501(c) (3) of the Code. Any reference to herein to any provision of the Code shall be deemed to mean such provision as now or hereafter existing, amended, supplemental, or suspended, as the case may be.

Said organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Upon the dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose.

Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction in the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

The date of each amendment(s) adoption: _____, if other than the date this document was signed.

Effective date if applicable: _____
