Attachment to
Articles of Incorporation of EduTechAid International Inc.

Said organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under the section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. The business activity for said organization is as follows: Education is not only a fundamental human right but an enabling right with a direct impact of the realization of all human rights. The right to education in the digital world must include the right to digital tools and connectivity.

The organization aims to improve the socio-economic conditions of these communities by enhancing the learning opportunities of underprivileged children and students, thereby empowering the next generation of innovators. It also seeks to improve digital literacy by producing, constructing, and supplying technological devices and STEM education resources. Specifically, strive to provide underprivileged children, communities, schools, and learning institutions with access to digital devices and STEM education resources. As part of its mission, the organization will assist in the acquisition of e-books, tablets, computers, educational materials, educational software, and electronic devices or equipment for those in need.

In addition, will promote digital citizenship by advocating for the responsible use of technology and supplying underserved communities with technological tools for quality education. The organization will also work in partnership with other entities to strengthen its impact within local and regional communities and advocates for policy changes to improve living conditions for underprivileged children and families.

By undertaking various projects, programs, and initiatives geared towards electronic learning and technological advancement, hopes to play a significant role in improving the lives of underrepresented individuals and communities.

No part of the net earnings of this organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof. No substantial part of the activities of this organization shall be the carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and this organization shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

2023 MAY 22 PM 12:11

Upon the dissolution of this corporation, assets remaining shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
