ARTICLE X

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 1. Neither the directors nor officers of the Foundation shall be personally liable for any obligations of the Foundation of any nature whatsoever, nor shall any of the property of any member, director or officer of the Foundation be subject to the payment of the obligations of the Foundation to any extent whatsoever.

Section 2. The Foundation shall have no capital stock.

Section 3. This Foundation shall have all powers to carry out its purposes and activities incidental to its purposes in furtherance, and not in limitation of, the powers conferred by law and by the "Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act", Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, or as the same may be amended.

Section 4. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Foundation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on:

- (a) by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code of (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), or
- (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Laws).

Section 5. During any period that it is a "private foundation" as defined in Section 509(a) of the Code, or a corresponding provision of any subsequent Federal tax laws, the Foundation shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Code, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws which would give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by Section 4941(a) or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws.

Section 6. During any period that it is a "private foundation" as defined in Section 509(a) of the Code, or a corresponding provision of any subsequent Federal tax laws, the Foundation shall either operate as a private operating foundation in a manner to qualify as a private operating foundation for purposes of Section 4942 of the Code, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws; or it shall distribute its income for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as to not become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942 of the Code, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws.

Section 7. During any period that it is a "private foundation" as defined in Section 509(a) of the Code, or a corresponding provision of any subsequent Federal tax laws, the Foundation shall not retain any "excess business holdings" as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Code, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws, which would give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by Section 4943(a) or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws.

Section 8. During any period that it is a "private foundation" as defined in Section 509(a) of the Code, or a corresponding provision of any subsequent Federal tax laws, the Foundation shall not make any investment which would jeopardize the carrying out of any of its exempt purposes, within the meaning of Section 4944 of the Code, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws, so as to give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by Section 4944(a) or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws.

Section 9. During any period that it is a "private foundation" as defined in Section 509(a) of the Code, or a corresponding provision of any subsequent Federal tax laws, the Foundation shall not make any "taxable expenditures" as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Code, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws which would give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by Section 4945(a) or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws.

ARTICLE XIDISSOLUTION

Upon the dissolution of this Foundation the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all the liabilities of the Foundation, pursuant to the procedure of provisions of Florida Statutes §617.1406, dispose of all of the assets of the Foundation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, literary, religious or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any of the assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Circuit Court of the County in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
