Article VIII - Effective Date and Term of Existence

The effective date of the Organization is the date the Florida Department of State, Division of Corporations, approves the Articles of Incorporation. The period of duration of this Organization is perpetual.

Article IX – Objectives

The objectives and purposes of this Organization are:

A. The purposes of the Corporation are exclusively religious within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1966 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue laws.

B. The Organization is a Christian ministry where, as followers of Jesus, we all work together to make disciples for God so they are filled and empowered by the Holy Spirit. They are sent locally, nationally and internationally to continue bringing the Word of God and to re-establish the heavenly kingdom of God in each city, town or community through missions. The organization is moved to bring mercy to the most need or helpless, sick, lonely, widow, orphan and foreigner. The Organization helps families, children, elderly and everyone in need regardless of race, creed or political affiliation, because it believes in the unity and love of Jesus.

C. To be a support ministry to help other ministries, churches and non-profit organizations to help the community.

D. To establish and maintain a church or churches and/or a Christian ministry and provide a place of worship in Florida and in other states of the nation, and in any other country outside of the United States, including, but not limited to, provide spiritual covering to other ministries and/or churches.

E. To carry on the business, businesses and all related activities, duties, acts and procedures connected with providing help for the needy, preaching, promotion and dissemination of the Gospel message of Jesus Christ and the Bible as the inspired Word of God to man, based on our beliefs as Christians as Faith manual and moral behavior, to the end that the people of God may be conformed to the image of Jesus Christ through television, radio, Internet, different social media, newspapers and any other forms of mass communication and or conferences, meetings, study groups and any model or teaching strategy that helps the formation of disciples of Jesus through the establishment and management of Gospel missions, churches and other ministries, to be an Evangelical, Christian Ministry, with primary interests in evangelism and missionary work, involved in, and associated either directly or indirectly with, but not limited to, miscellaneous services, and other activities to be transacted with either foreign or domestic persons, firms, companies, corporations, partnerships, governments or governmental agencies, and any other business or businesses, to the full extent permitted by the Laws of the State of Florida as a non-profit corporation.

Article X – Ministries

The ministries that this Corporation will establish include, but are not limited to:

A. To engage in, promulgate, foster, promote and otherwise cause to be affected the preaching, teaching and spreading of the Gospel, tenets, principles, concepts, admonitions, words, thoughts, projections, revelations and the whole embodiment of the Holy Bible, according to its purposes, reasons for being and existence, together with all the concepts, reasonings and precepts, and more particularly the revelation of and speaking of God, the Father and Creator of mankind.

B. To engage in the ministry to man and mankind without limitation, which ministry shall include, but not limited to, the soul and spiritual aspect, the economic and social improvement, enhancement and well-being, the psychological aspect, the physical aspect, the intellectual aspect, and all other facets and areas of the life of man and mankind and/or the human being of all ages and in all areas for the purpose of improving and enhancing human life to the glory of God and for the human being's own enhancement, elevation and progress, including, but not limited, to vocational training.

C. To foster and promote the improvement and highest attainment in the areas of economic well-being, social relationships, intellectual achievements, physical improvement and spiritual development and growth for the purpose of enabling mankind of all ages and stations, regardless of the status of each individual, to form a more realistic attitude and approach to God as the Father and Creator of all things and the continuous improvement in the relationship of human beings among themselves. In the foregoing respects, it will not be the purpose of this Corporation to promulgate secularistic, social and political concepts inasmuch as the purposes of the Corporation are to promote relations with God as the Creator and Redeemer under the belief and principle that such relationship will then be reflected among all men for the enhancement and elevation thereof.

E. To regularly assemble the members of this ministry for fellowship one with another and to worship God in spirit and in truth; and to cooperate in the assembling of the whole body of Christ.

Directors shall hold their annual and special meetings as the By-Laws may provide and may have one or more offices, within or outside the State of Florida. The appointment of the directors shall be stated in the By-Laws.

Article XV – Qualification of Membership

The categories of membership, qualifications for membership and the manner of admission shall be set forth and regulated by the By-Laws of the Organization.

Article XVI – Voting Rights

The Corporation shall have no voting members, the management and affairs of the Organization shall be at all times under the direction of the president and the Board of Directors, whose operations in governing the Organization shall be defined by statutes and the Organization's by-laws. No director shall have any right, title or interest in or to any property of the Organization.

Article XVII – Prohibition Against Private Inurement

No part of the net earnings of the Organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the Organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article Three hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the Organization shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Organization shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Article XIII – Compensation

Resolved that any salaries, wages, together with fringe benefits or other forms of compensation (housing, transportation, or other allowances) paid to or provided our employees, directors or officers will not exceed a value which is reasonable and commensurate with the duties and working hours associated with such employment and with the compensation ordinarily paid persons with similar positions or duties.

Article XIX – Limitation on Activities

No part of the net earnings of this Organization shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation (except as otherwise provided by Section 501(h) of the Internal Revenue Code), and this Organization shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles, this Organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (1) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or (2) by a corporation's contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law.

Article XX- Dissolution

In the event of dissolution of this Organization, its assets remaining after payment, or provision for payment, of all debts and liabilities of this Organization shall be distributed and turned over to one or more organizations which themselves are exempt as organizations described in Sections 501(c)(3) and 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Code, or to the Federal, State or local government for exclusive public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the Organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

However, if the named recipient is not then in existence or no longer a qualified distribute, or unwilling or unable to accept the distribution, then the assets of this Organization shall be distributed to a fund, foundation or corporation organized and operated exclusively for the purpose specified in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or corresponding section of any future Federal tax code).

Article XXI – Indemnification

The Organization shall indemnify a director or officer of the Organization who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which the director or officer was a party because the director or officer of the Organization against any reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses incurred by the director or officer in connection with the proceeding. The Organization may indemnify an individual made a party to a proceeding because the individual is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Organization against liability if authorized in the specific case after determination, in the manner required by the Board of Directors, that indemnification of the director, officer, employee or agent, as the case may be, is permissible in the circumstances because the director, officer, employee or agent has met the standard of conduct set forth by the Board of Directors. The indemnification and advancement of attorneys' fees and expenses for directors, officers, employees and agents of the Organization shall apply when each person is serving at the Corporation's request while a director, officer, employee or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, whether or not for profit, as well as in their official capacity with the Organization. The Organization also may pay for or reimburse the reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses incurred by a director, officer, employee or agent of the Organization who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of the proceeding. The Organization also may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of an individual arising from the individual's status as a director, officer, employee or agent of the Organization, whether or not the Organization would have power to indemnify the individual against the same liability under the law. All references in these Articles of Incorporation are deemed to include any amendment or successor thereto. Nothing contained in these Articles of Incorporation shall limit or preclude the exercise of any right relating to indemnification or advance of attorneys' fees and expenses to any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Organization or the ability of the Organization otherwise to indemnify or advance expenses to any such person by contract or in any other manner. If any word, clause or sentence of the foregoing provisions regarding indemnification or advancement of attorneys' fees or expenses shall be held invalid as contrary to law or public policy, it shall be severable and the provisions remaining shall not be otherwise affected. All references in these Articles of Incorporation to "director," "officer," "employee," or "agent" shall include their heirs, estates, executors, administrators and personal representatives of such persons.

Article XXII – Liabilities for Debts

The members, officers, directors, employees, or agents of the Organization shall not be liable for the debts of the Organization.

Article XXIII – Amendments

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended in the manner provided By Law. Every amendment shall be approved by the Board of Director proposed by them to the members and approved at a members meeting by a majority of the members, unless all the directors and all the members sign a written statement manifesting their intention that a certain amendment of these Articles of Incorporation be made.

No contract or other transaction between this Organization and any other corporation shall be affected or invalidated by the fact that any one or more of the directors of this Organization is an officer or director of any other corporation.
