Article III - Purpose

The purpose of this non-profit corporation ("Corporation") is to operate exclusively for charitable, educational, and scientific purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

The Corporation is organized to provide resources and support to youth who are aging out of foster care and the youth in high school and facing challenges in achieving stable housing, pursuing education, and developing essential life skills. The primary objective of the Corporation is to empower and assist these young individuals in their transition to independent adulthood by offering guidance, mentorship, educational programs, housing, holistic alternative medical care and access to vital resources.

In furtherance of its purpose, the Corporation shall engage in the following activities:

1. Establishing and maintaining programs and initiatives that address the specific needs of foster youth transitioning into adulthood, with a focus on housing, education, and life skills development.
2. Collaborating with governmental agencies, community organizations, and other stakeholders to advocate for improved policies and resources for youth aging out of foster care.
3. Providing educational scholarships, grants, and financial assistance to eligible individuals for pursuing higher education, vocational training, and other educational opportunities.
4. Conducting outreach activities to raise awareness about the challenges faced by youth aging out of foster care and to promote community involvement and support.
5. Organizing and facilitating workshops, seminars, and training sessions to equip foster youth with essential life skills, including but not limited to financial literacy, job readiness, and personal development.
6. Soliciting and accepting donations, grants, and bequests from individuals, corporations, foundations, and other entities, both monetary and in-kind, to support the Corporation's programs and initiatives.
7. Engaging in any other lawful activities that are consistent with the Corporation's purpose and mission, as determined by the Board of Directors.

The Corporation shall not carry on any activities that are not permitted by organizations exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

In the event of dissolution or termination of the Corporation, all remaining assets shall be distributed to one or more organizations qualifying for exemption under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, as determined by the Board of Directors.

This Article III is intended to constitute a limitation on the purposes and powers of the Corporation and shall be construed in accordance with the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code and the regulations promulgated thereunder.
