Articles of Incorporation of
CLARCONA LANDSITES PROPERTY OWNERS' ASSOCIATION, INC.
a Florida Not-for-Profit Corporation

The undersigned Incorporator, desiring to form a corporation not for profit under Chapter 617, F.S., deliver for filing the following Articles of Incorporation for the CLARCONA LANDSITES PROPERTY OWNERS' ASSOCIATION, INC. ("Association"), pursuant to Section 617.02011, Fla. Stat.:

Article I
Name and Principal Office

Section 1. The name of the Association shall be CLARCONA LANDSITES PROPERTY OWNERS' ASSOCIATION, INC.

Section 2. The principal office and mailing address of the Association is 2315 Lynx Lane, Suite 6, Orlando, FL 32804.

Article II
Purpose and Powers

Section 1. The purpose for which the Association is organized is to act as a governing association and the managing entity for CLARCONA LANDSITES COMMERCIAL CONDOMINIUMS ("Condominium") to be located upon the following lands in Orange County, Florida, described in Exhibit "A" attached hereto. All capitalized terms used in these Articles of Incorporation, if not defined, shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms that are contained in the Declaration of Condominium for the Condominium ("Declaration"), or Chapter 718, F.S., or the Bylaws and such meanings are incorporated into these Articles of Incorporation by reference as if set forth herein. To the extent that a provision in these Articles of Incorporation conflicts with the Declaration, the Declaration shall govern. "Member" means a member of the Association. The Association shall not be operated for profit and shall make no distributions of income to its Members, directors or officers.

Section 2. The Association shall have all of the powers, rights, and privileges that a corporation organized under the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act may now or hereafter have or exercise, provided that such powers, rights, and privileges to not conflict with the terms of these Articles, the Bylaws, the Declaration, and Chapter 718, F.S., and provided further that the Association shall have the powers, rights, and privileges reasonably necessary or convenient to operate, maintain, and manage the Condominium pursuant to the Declaration and Bylaws, as amended from time to time, and other documents or agreements that may exist from time to time pertaining to the Condominium, and Chapter 718, F.S. In addition, the Association shall have the following specific powers and duties:

(a) Power to Manage Condominium Property, Contract, and Sue. The Association may contract and sue with respect to the exercise of non-exercise of its powers, duties and functions. For this purpose, the powers of the Association include, but are not limited to, the maintenance, management, and operation of the Condominium Property. After control of the Association is obtained by the Members other than the Developer, the Association may institute, maintain, settle, or appeal actions or hearings in its name on behalf of all Members concerning matters of common interest to most or all Members, including but not limited to, the common elements; the improvements on the Common Elements; mechanical, electrical, and plumbing elements on, or serving, the Common Elements; representations of the Developer pertaining to any existing or proposed commonly used facilities; protesting ad valorem taxes on commonly used facilities and on Lots; defending actions in eminent domain or bring inverse condemnation actions; and any other action necessary to effectuate the purpose of the Association and the Condominium Property.

(b) Assessments; Management of Common Elements. The Association has the power to make and collect Assessments as to each Lot and to lease, maintain, repair, replace, alter, add to, improve, administer, and operate the Common Elements as provided in the Declaration and applicable law. The Association may pay ad valorem taxes and special assessments which are liens against any part of the Condominium other than the Lots and assess the Members therefor. The Association also may contract for utilities for the Condominium (including the Lots on a bulk service basis) and assess Members for same. The Association may act as agent for Members as required by and in accordance with applicable law in connection with the collection from Members of ad valorem taxes and special assessments and the remittance of same to the county tax collector or appropriate authority. The Association may use the proceeds of the Assessments in the exercise of its powers and duties and enforce levy of the Assessments as to each Lot through lien and foreclosure or by such other action as may be allowed by the Declaration of applicable law.

The Association may not charge a use fee against a Member for the use of the common elements or the Association property unless otherwise provided in the Declaration or by a majority vote of the Association or unless the charges relate to the expenses incurred by a Member having exclusive use of the common elements or Association Property.

(c) Right of Access to Lots. The Association has the irrevocable right of access to each Lot during reasonable hours, when necessary in its discretion for the maintenance, repair, or replacement of any common elements or of any portion of a Lot to be maintained by the Association pursuant to the Declaration or as necessary to prevent damage to the common elements, or a Lot.

(d) Title to Property. The Association has the power to acquire title to or otherwise hold, convey, lease, grant possessory or use interests in, and mortgage Association property for the use and benefit of its Members on terms the Board of Directors of the Association ("Board") may deem reasonable. The power to acquire personal property shall be exercised by the Board in its discretion. The Association may purchase Lots for any purpose and hold, lease, mortgage, or convey such Lots on terms and conditions approved by the Board. Except as otherwise permitted in Section 718.111(8) and (9) and 718.114, F.S., the Association may not acquire, convey, lease, or mortgage Association real property except in the manner provide din the Declaration. Subject to Section 718.112(2)(m), F.S., the Association, through its Board, has the limited power to convey a portion of the common elements to a condemning authority for the purposes of providing utility easements, right-of-way expansion, or other public purposes, whether negotiated or because of eminent domain proceedings.

(e) Purchase of Leases. The Association has the power to purchase any land lease or recreation lease as provided in the Declaration.

(f) Purchase of Lots. The Association has the power, except as prohibited by the Declaration, these Articles, or the Bylaws, to purchase Lots and to acquire, hold, lease, mortgage, and convey them. There shall be no limitation on the Association's right to purchase a Lot at a foreclosure sale resulting from the Association's foreclosure of its lien for unpaid Assessments as to the Lot, or to take title by deed in lieu of foreclosure.

(g) Easements. Except as prohibited or as otherwise prescribed by the Declaration, the Board has the authority, without the joinder of any Member, to grant, modify, or move any easement, if the easement constitutes part of or crosses the Common Elements, or Association Property. The Board is not authorized to modify, move, or vacate any easements created in whole or in part for the use or benefit of anyone other than the Members, or which crosses the property of anyone other than the Members, without consent or approval of those persons having the use and benefit of the easement, as required by law or by the instrument creating the easement. Nothing in this subsection affects the minimum requirements of Section 718.104(4)(n), F.S. or the powers enumerated in Section 718.111(3), F.S.

(h) Insurance. The Association shall use its best efforts to obtain and maintain adequate insurance to protect the Association, the Association Property, the Common Elements, and the Condominium Property required to be insured by the Association pursuant to Section 718.111(11), F.S., and as provided in the Declaration. The Association also may obtain and maintain other insurance including, but not limited to, liability insurance for the directors and officers, insurance for the benefit of the Association employees, and flood insurance for Common Elements, Association property, and Lots. The Association or a group of associations may self-insure against claims against the Association, the Association property, and the condominium property required to be insured by the Association. A copy of each policy of insurance in effect shall be made available for inspection by Members at reasonable times.

Every hazard policy issued to protect the Condominium shall comply with Florida law.

Every insurance policy issued to an individual Member shall provide that the coverage afforded by such policy is excess over the amount recoverable under any other policy covering the same property without rights of subrogation against the Association.

(i) Official Records. From the inception of the Association, the Association shall maintain each of the items, when applicable, which shall constitute the office record of the Association which are more fully set out in Section 718.111(12)(a)1-17, F.S. The official records of the Association shall be maintained with the state. The official records of the Association shall be made available to a Member as required by Section 718.111(12)(b)-(d), F.S.

- (j) Financial Reports. The Association shall prepare and deliver financial reports in accordance with Section 718.111(13), F.S.
- (k) Commingling. All funds shall be maintained separately in the Association's name. Reserve and operating funds of the Association may not be commingled for purposes of investment. No manager or business entity required to be licensed or registered under Section 468.432, F.S., and no agent, employee, officer, or director of the Association shall commingle any Association funds with his funds or with funds from any other condominium association.
- (l) Rules and Regulations. The Association has the power to adopt Rules and Regulations concerning the Lots, the Common Elements, and Association property.
- (m) Enforcement. The Association has the power to enforce by legal means the provisions of Chapter 718, F.S., and the Condominium Documents.
- (n) Employment of Service Personnel. The Association has the power to employ personnel and enter into agreements reasonably necessary for the performance of services required for the proper exercise of the rights, duties, powers, and functions of the Association.
- (o) Contracts for Services. The Association has the power to enter into contracts the Board deems desirable and reasonable, for the provision of services to the Association or the Members, including but not limited to contracts for telephone, water, sewer, gas, cable television, security, and pest control services.
- (p) Contract for Management and Maintenance. The Association has the power to contract for the management and maintenance of the Condominium and to authorize a management firm to act as the managing entity of the Condominium, and accordingly, perform all of the functions and duties of the Association in its capacity as the managing entity pursuant to the Declaration, and any applicable law.
- (q) Authorize Private Use of the Common Elements. The Association may authorize Members or others to use portions of the common elements for private purposes. Reasonable charges may be imposed provided an agreement is entered into between the Association and the user.
- (r) Other Authority. The Association has the power to exercise such other power and authority to do and perform every act and thing necessary and proper in the conduct of its business for the accomplishment of its purposes as set forth in these Articles and as permitted by the applicable Florida Statutes.

Article III

Qualification of Members and the Manner of their Admission

Section 1. The Incorporators constitute the sole Members of this Association until the recording of the Declaration naming the Association as the condominium association. On recording of the Declaration, the Developer shall own all of the memberships in the Association. When the purchase price is paid and the deed to a Lot is issued and recorded, the Owner automatically becomes a Member. If additional phases are added to the Condominium, the Developer initially shall hold all new memberships created, and when the purchase price is paid and the deed to the Lot is issued and recorded, the Owner automatically becomes a Member.

Section 2. Ownership of a Lot shall be a prerequisite to exercising any rights, powers, and privileges as a Member. A Lot may be owned by one or more individuals or by a corporation, partnership, trust, limited liability company or any other appropriate entity with the power to hold title. There shall be one Member for each Lot Owner, however, even if there are two or more owners of a Lot. Each Lot shall only have one individual to act as a Member, and each Lot shall only have one vote on any matter in these Articles, in the Bylaws, in the Declaration or in Ch. 617, Florida Statutes, that requires a vote of the Members.

Section 3. Membership shall terminate on the termination of the Condominium, or on transfer of a Member's ownership in the Lot (for that Lot only if more than one is owned), provided the transfer is accomplished in accordance with all provisions of the Declaration. The transferor's membership automatically shall transfer and be vested in the new Owner succeeding to the ownership interest in the Lot, subject to a lien for all unpaid Assessments as to the Lot. The Association may rely on a recorded deed as evidence of transfer of a Lot and terminate the transferor's membership and recognize the membership of the transferee.

Article IV Term of Existence

The Association shall have perpetual existence.

Article V Incorporator

The name and address of the Incorporator to these Articles is as follows:

CHARLES A. McNULTY
2315 LYNX LANE, SUITE 6
ORLANDO, FL 32804

Article VI Officers

The officers of the Association shall consist of a president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, and such other officers as the Board may from time to time deem appropriate. The officers of the Association shall be elected at the first meeting of the Board, and each annual meeting of the Board thereafter. Any officer may be removed at any meeting by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors of the Board, either with or without cause, and any vacancy in any office may be filled by the Board at any Board meeting.

The names of the officers who shall serve until the election of their successors are:

Name	Office
CHARLES McNULTY	President
COLE WYNIA	Vice-President
JENNIFER CREEKMORE	Secretary/Treasurer

Article VII
Board of Directors

Section 1. The affairs of the Association shall be managed and conducted by a Board consisting of at least three (3) natural persons who are 18 years of age or older.

Section 2. The initial Board shall consist of three (3) persons. The names and addresses of the initial Board who shall hold office until their successors have been elected and qualified are as follows:

CHARLES A. McNULTY
2315 LYNX LANE, SUITE 6
ORLANDO, FL 32804

COLE WYNIA
2315 LYNX LANE, SUITE 6
ORLANDO, FL 32804

JENNIFER CREEKMORE
2315 LYNX LANE, SUITE 6
ORLANDO, FL 32804

Provisions regarding the election, removal, and filling of vacancies on the Board shall be as stated in the Bylaws. Only a Member can be a director, and a director must also be a Member of the Association. Each Lot Owner shall be entitled to designate one person to be a Director.

Article VIII
Bylaws

The power to adopt the Bylaws shall be vested in the Board. Thereafter the Bylaws may be amended, altered, modified, or rescinded by the action or approval of a majority of a quorum of Members present, in person or by proxy, at a regular or special meeting of the Members. However, any such change of the Bylaws shall not affect the rights or interests of the Developer, its successors, or assigns, or a mortgagee of any Condominium Property or any Lot without the written consent of the Developer and/or mortgagee, respectively. The manner of amending, altering, modifying, or rescinding the Bylaws shall be as set forth in the Bylaws.

Article IX
Amendments to Articles

Section 1. Amendments to these Articles of Incorporation shall be made in the following manner:

(a) The Board shall adopt a resolution setting forth the proposed amendment and, if Members have been admitted, direct that it be submitted to a vote at a meeting of the Members, which may be either the annual or a special meeting. If no Members have been admitted, the amendment shall be adopted by a vote of the majority of directors and the provisions for adoption by Members shall not apply.

(b) Written notice setting forth the proposed amendment or a summary of the change to be effected shall be given to each Member of record entitled to vote within the time and in the manner provided in these Articles for the giving of notice of meetings of Members. If the meeting is an annual meeting, the proposed amendment or such summary may be included in the notice of such annual meeting.

(c) At such meeting having a quorum in attendance in person or by proxy, a vote of the Members entitled to vote thereon shall be taken on the proposed amendment. The proposed amendment shall be adopted on receiving the affirmative vote of more than 50% of the number of votes cast by the Members in person or by proxy at such meeting.

Section 2. Any number of amendments may be submitted to the Members and voted on by them at one meeting.

Section 3. Notwithstanding anything in these Articles to the contrary, no amendment shall make any change in the qualifications for membership without approval in writing of all of the Members and the consent of all record holders of mortgages on any Condominium Property or Association Property. No amendment shall be made that is in conflict with Chapter 718, F.S., or the Declaration. No amendment which affects the rights and privileges provided to the Developer in Chapter 718, F.S., or the Declaration shall be effective without written consent of the Developer. No amendment shall be effective until filed in accordance with the applicable Florida corporation laws and a certified copy of the Articles of Amendment to these Articles are recorded in the Public Records of Orange County, Florida.

Article X Voting

Section 1. Each Lot is entitled to one vote pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Declaration.

Section 2. Votes may be cast either in person or by proxy, subject to the provisions of the Bylaws and Chapter 718, F.S. Any person appointed as proxy may, but need not be, an officer or director of the Association, or affiliated with Developer, its successors, or assigns.

Section 3. For purposes of these Articles, the Bylaws, the Declaration, or any other document of the Association or Condominium, the term "all Members" when used with reference to voting shall mean the total of all Members entitled to vote and shall not mean just those Members present at the meeting in person or by proxy. No vote appurtenant to a Lot shall be cast at any meeting unless the Member(s) owning the Lot is registered on the membership book of the Association.

Article XI

Additional Provisions

Section 1. No officer, director, or Member shall be personally liable for any debt or other obligation of the Association except as provided in the Declaration.

Section 2. The Association shall not be operated for profit. No dividend shall be paid, and no part of the income of the Association shall be distributed to its Members, directors, or officers. The Association may pay compensation in a reasonable amount to its Members, directors, or officers for services rendered, may confer benefits on its Members in conformity with its purposes, and on dissolution or final liquidation may make distributions to its Members as permitted by a court of competent jurisdiction. No such payment, benefit, or distribution shall be deemed to be a dividend or distribution of income.

Section 3. When the context of these Articles permits, the use of the plural shall include the singular and the singular shall include the plural, and the use of any gender shall be deemed to include all genders.

Section 4. Should any paragraph, sentence, phrase, or portion of any provision of these Articles or of the Bylaws or rules and regulations be held invalid or held inapplicable to certain circumstances, it shall not affect the validity of the remaining parts, the remaining instruments, or the application of such provisions to different circumstances.
