Amendment to Articles of Incorporation

Beis Dan of Florida Inc

The following language relates to the Corporation's tax-exempt status and is a true statement of purposes and powers.

Said Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, trustees, officers, or other private inclusions, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the previous clause. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements in), any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a Corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a Corporation, or other entity to which a charitable deduction under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, is available.

Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, assets shall be distributed for the exclusive exempt purposes within the meaning of section 513(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of competent jurisdiction of the jurisdiction where the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes and for such organization or organizations as said Court shall determine to be so organized and operated solely for such purposes.
