To Whom it May Concern:

When the first Board Meeting was called, two of the Board members resigned immediately, one because he felt inadequate to hold an office, and the other because he had reconsidered and felt it was adding too much responsibility to his already heavy work load. We have had no income in the corporation and never opened a bank account.

We were advised by our tax consultant that it would be wise to dissolve the corporation rather than to continue it at this time since we have not yet acquired revenue. Our only remaining Board member, Pieter Swart, signed the Articles of Dissolution.

Sincerely,
