Attachment to Articles of Incorporation
Purpora Family Foundation, Inc.

ARTICLE IX

Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Directors will, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all liabilities of the Corporation, distribute all Corporation assets to one (1) or more organizations organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary and educational purposes that are, at that time, qualified as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. If any assets are not distributed as provided in the preceding paragraph, the court of appropriate jurisdiction for the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, will dispose of those assets exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary and educational purposes or to one (1) or more organizations that are, at that time, qualified as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as such court shall determine.

ARTICLE X

1. No part of the net earnings or assets of the Corporation will inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its Director, officers, or any other private persons. The Corporation may, however, pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in this Certificate of Incorporation.
2. No part of the activities of the Corporation may include the carrying on of propaganda or be used to influence legislation as defined in Section 4945 of the Internal Revenue Code. The Corporation may not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.
3. The Corporation may not exercise any power or engage directly or indirectly in any activity that would invalidate its status as a corporation exempt from federal income taxation:
 - a. As a corporation exempt from federal tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code;
 - b. As a corporation to which contributions are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code; or
 - c. As a not-for-profit corporation organized under the laws of the State of Florida.
4. The Corporation must distribute its income each tax year at a time and in a manner not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code. Furthermore, the Corporation must not:
