E. If amending or adding additional Articles, enter change(s) here:

(attach additional sheets, if necessary). (Be specific)

Articles III, IX, X, XI, XII, and XIII are amended in their entirety to state as follows:

ARTICLE III. The corporation is organized exclusively for and will be operated exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, including for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. Without restricting and not in limitation of the foregoing, the primary purpose and objective is advancement of, presentation of, and education related to the musical arts; to present and to sponsor presentation of music by highly qualified musicians; to increase awareness of classical music in North Florida, and Jacksonville, Florida, in particular; and to provide music education opportunities to students, inclusive of all differences of identity, including race, socioeconomic status, age, and sexuality. The corporation shall not pursue any act or acts, purpose or purposes for its pecuniary profit, but such prohibition shall not limit the authority of the corporation to engage in fundraising and to accumulate reasonable reserves for the accomplishment of its not-for-profit purposes. The corporation shall have and be authorized to exercise all powers from time to time granted by law to Florida corporations not-for-profit, subject however to the limitations elsewhere expressed in these Articles.

ARTICLE IX. The corporation shall constitute a Florida not for profit corporation without members.

ARTICLE X. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its directors, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes of the corporation as set forth in these Articles.

No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to
