Said organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes; including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under the section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. The business activity for said organization is as follows: This nonprofit specializes in helping businesses that hire in all areas of tech and have exponential hiring needs they struggle to fill. We build out custom non-traditional tech apprenticeship programs that are tailored to the needs of each business. Our company is inspired by the successful apprentice training model of Accenture, and we use the prospective customers' competencies to build out a measurable system that monitors the apprenticeship training program by measuring outcomes and gaps of the learner in each class. We provide pre-screened talent and organize training materials to create a program that is efficient and effective. Our core values are centered around providing job opportunities to under served communities to make a more equitable world for women and black, indigenous and persons of color.

The current job market for tech roles is highly competitive, and companies struggle to find and hire the right talent for their needs. This has resulted in a shortage of qualified candidates for tech roles. The traditional approach to apprenticeships may not always work for these businesses as they may require specific skill sets that cannot be learned through traditional training methods. Additionally, under served communities have been excluded from tech job opportunities, leading to an inequitable workforce.

No part of the net earnings of this organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof. No substantial part of the activities of this organization shall be the carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and this organization shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Upon the dissolution of this corporation, assets remaining shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
