Articles of Incorporation
Intentional Impact Corporation
(A Florida Not for Profit Corporation)

The undersigned, acting as the incorporator of a not for profit corporation under the Florida Not for Profit Corporation Act, as set forth in Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes, as amended, adopts the following Articles of Incorporation for such Corporation:

Article I: Name

The name of the corporation shall be Intentional Impact Corporation hereinafter referred to as "the Corporation."

Article II: Principal Office and Mailing Address

The Principal office of the Corporation and the mailing address is 1151 Jann Avenue, Opa-Locka, FL 33054.

Article III: Duration

The period of duration of the Corporation shall be perpetual unless dissolved according to law.

Article IV: Purposes

The Corporation is organized and operated exclusively for charitable, scientific, literary, community and educational purposes, including but not limited to those specific and general purposes listed below, within the meaning of Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended.

A. The specific and primary purposes are:

1. To provide opportunities for underprivileged youths and adults to engage in training initiatives to learn about technology, supply chain and agriculture.
2. To assist youth and adults in underserved communities to develop entrepreneurial skills.
3. To provide youth and adults in underserved communities with opportunities to develop leadership skills.

B. The general purposes and powers are to have and exercise all rights and powers conferred on corporations formed under the Florida Not For Profit Act, provided, however, that the Corporation shall not, except to an unsubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance thereof.

Article V: Initial Registered Agent and Office

The initial Registered Agent for the Corporation is Felton Brown whose mailing address is 1151 Jann Avenue, Opa-Locka, FL 33054.

The corporation shall have the right to change such registered agent and registered agent office as provided by law.

Article VI: Limitations on Activities

- A. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (i) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501 (C) (3) of the Internal Revenue code of 1986, (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), or (ii) by a corporation; contributions to which are deductible under Section 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).
- B. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall consist of the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, nor shall the Corporation participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements) any political campaign on behalf of (or in opposition to) any candidate for public office.
- C. The Corporation's operations are to be conducted principally in the United States of America. The Corporation also may conduct operations in foreign countries; subject, however, to the laws of the State of Florida.

Article VII: Initial Board of Directors

The Corporation shall have an initial Board of Directors consisting of no less than three (3) natural persons. Those persons shall be elected as provided in the By-Laws. The manner in which Directors shall be chosen and removed from office, their qualifications, powers, duties, compensation, if any, tenure of office, the manner of filling vacancies on the Board, and the manner of calling and holding meetings of the Board of Directors, shall be as stated in the By-Laws. The authorized number of directors may be increased as provided in the By-Laws, but shall never be less than three (3).
