ARTICLE V MEMBERS AND VOTING

Until the First Conveyance, Declarant shall be entitled to cast the one (1) and only vote on all matters requiring a vote of the membership.
2. Upon the First Conveyance, Declarant shall be a Member as to each of the remaining Homes until each such Home is conveyed to another Owner, and thereupon and thereafter each and every Owner, including Declarant as to Homes owned by Declarant, shall be a Member and exercise all of the rights and privileges of a Member.

3. Membership in the Association for Owners other than Declarant shall be established by the acquisition of ownership of fee simple title to a Home as evidenced by the recording of an instrument of conveyance amongst the Public Records of the County. Where title to a Home is acquired by conveyance from a party other than Declarant by means of sale, gift, inheritance, devise, judicial decree, or otherwise, the person, persons, or entity thereby acquiring such Home shall not be a Member unless or until such Owner shall deliver a true copy of a deed or other instrument of acquisition of title to the Association.
4. The Association shall have two (2) classes of voting membership:
  - a. "Class A Members" shall be all Members, with the exception of Declarant while Declarant is a Class B Member, each of whom shall be entitled to one (1) vote for each Homeowner.
  - b. "Class B Member" shall be Declarant, who shall be entitled to three times the total number of votes of the Class A Members plus one. Class B membership shall cease and be converted to Class A membership upon the earlier to occur of the following events ("Turnover Date"):

On the Turnover Date, Class A Members, including Declarant, shall assume control of the Association and election not less than a majority of the Board.

5. The designation of different classes of membership are for purposes of establishing the number of votes applicable to certain Homes, and nothing herein shall be deemed to require voting solely by an individual class on any matter which requires the vote of Members, unless otherwise specifically set forth in the HARBOR'S VIEW CONDOMINIUM Documents.
6. No Member may assign, hypothecate, or transfer in any manner his/her membership in the Association except as an appurtenance to the Member's Home.
7. Any Member who conveys or loses title to a Home by sale, gift, devise, bequest, judicial decree, or otherwise, shall immediately upon such conveyance or loss of title no longer be a Member with respect to such Home and shall lose all rights and privileges of a Member resulting from ownership of such Home.
8. There shall be only one (1) vote for each Home, except for the Class B Member, as set forth herein. If there is more than one Member with respect to a Home as a result of the fee interest in such Home being held by more than one person, such Members collectively shall be entitled to only one (1) vote. The vote of the Owners of a Home owned by more than one natural person or by a corporation or other legal entity shall be cast by the person named in a certificate signed by all of the Owners of the Home or, if appropriate, by properly designated officers, partners, or principals of the respective legal entity ("Voting Member"), and filed with the Secretary of the Association, and such certificate shall be valid until revoked by a subsequent certificate. If such a certificate is not filed with the Secretary of the Association, the vote of such Home shall not be considered for a quorum or for any other purpose.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, whenever any Home is owned by a married couple, they may, but shall not be required to, designate a Voting Member. In the event a certificate designating a Voting Member is not filed by the married couple, the following provisions shall govern their right to vote:

- a. When both are present at a meeting, each shall be regarded as the agent and proxy of the other for purposes of casting the vote for each Home owned by them. In the event they are unable to concur in their decision upon any topic requiring a vote, they shall lose their right to vote on that topic at that meeting but shall count for purposes of establishing a quorum.
  - b. When only one (1) spouse is present at a meeting, the person present may cast the home vote without establishing the concurrence of the other spouse, absent any prior written notice to the contrary by the other spouse. In the event of prior written notice to the contrary to the Association by the other spouse, the vote of said Home shall not be considered, but shall count for purposes of establishing a quorum.
  - c. When neither spouse is present, the person designated in a "Proxy" (as defined in the Bylaws) signed by either spouse may cast the Home vote, when voting by Proxy is allowed, absent any prior written notice to the contrary to the Association by the other spouse or the designation of a different Proxy by the other spouse. In the event of prior written notice to the contrary to the Association or the designation of a different Proxy by the other spouse, the vote of said Home shall not be considered, but shall count for purposes of establishing a quorum.
9. A quorum shall consist of persons entitled to cast at least forty percent (40%) of the total number of votes of the Members.

5. A Director (other than a Declarant-appointed Director) may be removed from office upon the affirmative vote of a majority of Members for any reason deemed to be in the best interests of the Members. 7. At the Initial Election Meeting, a "staggered" term of office of the Board shall be created as follows:
  - a. A number equal to fifty percent (50%) of the total number of Directors rounded to the nearest whole number is the number of Directors whose term of office shall be established at two (2) years and the Directors serving for a two (2) year term will be the Directors receiving the most votes at the meeting; and
  - b. The remaining Directors' terms of office shall be established at one (1) year.

At each Annual Members' Meeting thereafter held in the month of January of each year, as many Directors of the Association shall be elected as there are Directors whose regular term of office expires at such time, and the term of office of the Directors so elected shall be for two (2) years, expiring when their successors are duly elected and qualified.

8. Notwithstanding the above, in the event of any such settlement, the indemnification provisions provided in this Article X shall not be automatic and shall apply only when the Board approves such settlement and reimbursement for the costs and expenses of such settlement as being in the best interest of the Association, and in the event a Director or officer admits that he/she is or is adjudged guilty of willful misfeasance or malfeasance in the performance of his/her duties, the indemnification provisions of this Article X shall not apply.

The foregoing right of indemnification provided in this Article X shall be in addition to and not exclusive of any and all rights of indemnification to which a Director or officer of the Association may be entitled under statute or common law.

ARTICLE XI BYLAWS

The First Board shall adopt the Bylaws, and thereafter may be altered, amended, or rescinded in the manner provided for in the Bylaws. In the event of any conflict between the provisions of these Articles and the provisions of the Bylaws, the provisions of these Articles shall control.

ARTICLE XII AMENDMENTS

1. Prior to the First Conveyance, these Articles may be amended only by an instrument in writing signed by the incorporator of these Articles and filed in the Office of the Secretary of State of the State of Florida.
2. After the First Conveyance and prior to the Turnover Date, these Articles may be amended solely by a majority vote of the Board, without the prior written consent of the Members, at a duly called meeting of the Board.
3. After the Turnover Date, these Articles may be amended in the following manner:

  - c. At such meeting, a vote of the Members shall be taken on the proposed amendment(s). The proposed amendment(s) shall be adopted upon receiving the affirmative vote of a majority of the total voting interests present at such meeting.
4. An amendment may be adopted by a written statement (in lieu of a meeting) signed by all Members and all members of the Board setting forth their intention that an amendment to the
5. Articles be adopted.
6. These Articles may not be amended without the written consent of a majority of the members of the Board.
7. Notwithstanding any provisions of this Article XII to the contrary, these Articles shall not be amended in any manner which shall prejudice the right of Declarant, without the prior written consent thereto by Declarant, for so long as Declarant holds either a leasehold interest in or title to at least one (1) Home; and any "Institutional Mortgagee" (as such term is defined in the Declaration) without the prior written consent of such Institutional Mortgagee.

8. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Article XII, no amendment to these Articles shall be adopted which shall abridge, amend, or alter the rights of Declarant hereunder, including, but not limited to, Declarant's right to designate and select members of the First Board or otherwise designate and select Directors as provided in Article IX hereof; nor shall any amendment be adopted or become effective without the prior written consent of Declarant.
