Addendum A to Articles of Incorporation

1. Purpose Statement: The Organization is being formed for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes. The business activity of said organization is to inspire children with education and income inequities and who could become first generation college students, to get excited about STEM and exploring other interests, as allowable under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

2. Dissolution Clause: Upon dissolution of the organization, its assets will be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose.

3. Limitations Statement: The Organization will refrain from any political campaign activity or that it will not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of (or in opposition to) any candidate for public office.

4. Earnings Clause: No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, directors, officers or other private persons, except that the organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of its purposes.

5. Operational Limitation Statement: The Organization is not empowered to engage in any activity, in person or otherwise, that is not in pursuance of its stated objectives.

6. Private Inurement Prohibition Statement: No part of the income of the Corporation will be distributed to its members, directors, or officers.
