Article III: Purpose [Replace entire article as follows]

The corporation shall be a not-for-profit corporation under the provisions of Chapter 617, Florida Statutes. It shall be organized to unite all persons interested in serving the homeless veteran community:

- a. To provide transitional and permanent housing to all homeless veterans in need of reachable resources and guidance from the veteran community.
- b. Serve homeless veterans by empowering each veteran to reach their full potential after service.

The Corporation shall have full power and authority: (a) to seek, accept and receive gifts, grants, contributions, dues and bequests of real and personal property; (b) to hold, invest, reinvest and expend such funds and properties so received for such purposes; (c) to borrow money and issues evidences of indebtedness in furtherance of any or all of the objectives of its business; and (d) within and subject to the limitations of s.501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, to perform all other acts necessary or incidental to the above and to do whatever is deemed necessary, useful, advisable, or conducive, directly or indirectly, to carry out any of the purposes of the Corporation, as set forth in these Articles of Incorporation including the exercise of all other power and authority enjoyed by corporations generally by virtue of the provisions of Chapter 617, Florida Statutes.

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered by officers of the Corporation and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in this Article. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes with the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
