Purpose

Corporate Purpose; Powers

The purposes for which the Corporation is organized are exclusively religious, charitable and educational within the meaning of the Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or the corresponding provision of any future United States' internal revenue law, and such purposes shall include the following:

1. The purpose of this corporation is to help ministries develop their digital finger print across all platform and to share their ministries information and message of the gospel of Jesus Christ.
2. As a means of accomplishing the above purposes and methods, the corporation shall have the following powers:

- (a) To accept, acquire, receive, take and hold by bequest, devise, grant, gift, purchase, exchange, lease, transfer, judicial order or decree, or otherwise, for any of its objects and purposes, any property, both real and personal, of whatever kind, nature of description and wherever situated.
 - (b) To sell, exchange, convey, mortgage, lease transfer or otherwise dispose of, any such property, both real and personal, as the objects and purposes of the Corporation may require, object to such limitations as may be prescribed by law.
 - (c) To borrow money, and, from time-to-time, to make, accept, endorse, execute and issue bonds, debentures, promissory notes, monies borrowed or in payment for property acquired, or for any of the other purposes of the corporation. And to secure the payment of any such obligations by mortgage, pledge, deed, indenture, agreement, or other instrument of trust, or by other lien upon assignment of, or agreement in regard to all or any part of the property, rights, or privilege of the corporation wherever situated, whether now owned or hereafter to be acquired.
 - (d) To invest and reinvest its funds in such stock, common or preferred, bonds, debentures, mortgages, or in such other securities and property real and personal, as it shall deem advisable, subject to the limitations and conditions contained in any bequest, devise, grant, or gift, provided such limitations and conditions are not in conflict with the provisions of 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and applicable regulations thereunder, as they now exist or as they may be amended.
3. No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefits of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in the furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the organization shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the organization shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the organization shall not carry on any organization exempt from the federal income tax under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
Section 4.02 notwithstanding any other provision of these articles of incorporation:
4. The Corporation shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by an organization exempt from taxation under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended, or by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code and regulation as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.
