Said organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under the section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. The business activity for said organization is as follows: Together, we create change for marginalized children. As an organization, we desire to promote unity and protect the rights of our inner-city youth thus, allowing them an opportunity to explore this world innocently as we all expect as the normal course of life. To that end, our organization will put together programs that put Christian values and principles in concert with systems that build the body, mind, and spirit. Many have come before us, and many will appear after however, Our passionate group of entrepreneurs, professionals, and working-class citizens dedicated to improving the quality of life for children at risk. Allow Me Inc. believes that the best way to reach children in need is to go directly to where they live and provide various forms of communication and programs that facilitate granular then gradual change. We have grass-root ideas like talent shows, essay and writing competitions, student conduct awards and more. Further, we must have the full cooperation of the parents and community professional dedicated to working towards the health and prosperity of our youth. Programs involving music and the exploration of the arts that foster self confidence and makes dreams come true. We also want to reward and support positive parental involvement. We want our inner-city youth to live each day to its fullest and appreciate every learning experience. Our purpose is woven into our corporate DNA.

No part of the net earnings of this organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof. No substantial part of the activities of this organization shall be the carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and this organization shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.
