11.2 The corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party to any proceeding by the corporation because the person is or was a Director, officer or agent of the corporation against expenses and amounts paid in settlement not exceeding, in the judgment of the Board of Directors, the estimated expense of litigating the proceeding to conclusion, actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of such proceeding, including any appeal thereof. Such indemnification shall be authorized if such person acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation, except that no indemnification shall be made under this Section with respect to any claim, issue, or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable unless, and only to the extent that, the court in which such proceeding was brought, or any other court of competent jurisdiction shall determine that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for the expenses which the court shall deem proper.

11.3 To the extent that a Director, officer, committee member, employee, or agent of the corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any proceeding referred to in Section 11.1 or 11.2, or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith.

11.4 Any indemnification under Section 11.1 or 11.2, unless pursuant to a determination by a court, shall be made by the corporation only as authorized in the specific case after a determination that indemnification of the Director, officer or agent is proper under the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 11.1 or 11.2. Such determination shall be made: (A) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of Directors who were not parties to such proceeding; or (B) by independent legal counsel selected (i) by the Board of Directors as described in subsection 11.4.1, or (ii) if a quorum of the Directors cannot be obtained for Subsection 12.4.1, then by a majority of the shareholders of the corporation who were not parties to such proceeding.

11.5 Expenses incurred by an officer or Director in defending a civil or criminal proceeding may be paid by the corporation prior to the final disposition of the proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such Director, officer or committee member, to repay such amount if he is ultimately found not to be entitled to indemnification by the corporation pursuant to this section. Expenses incurred by other employees and agents may be paid in advance upon such terms or conditions that the Board of Directors deems appropriate.

11.6 The indemnification and advance of expenses provided pursuant to this Article 11 are not exclusive, and the corporation may make any other or further indemnification or advance expenses of any of its Directors, officers, or agents, under any bylaw, agreement, vote of Members or disinterested Directors, or otherwise. However, indemnification or advance of expenses shall not be made to or on behalf of any Director, officer, or agent if a judgment or other final adjudication establishes that his actions, or omissions to act, were material to the cause of action so adjudicated and constitute: (i) a violation of the criminal law, unless the Director, officer or agent had reasonable cause to believe his conduct was lawful or had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful; (ii) a transaction from which the Director, officer or agent derived an improper personal benefit; or (iii) willful misconduct or a conscious disregard for the best interests
