ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

OF

THE ROADS RIDGE CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION, INC.

The undersigned incorporator hereby makes, subscribes, acknowledges and files these Articles of Incorporation for the purpose of forming a corporation not-for-profit in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida.

ARTICLE I

NAME AND ADDRESS OF THE CORPORATION

The name of this corporation shall be The Roads Ridge Condominium Association, Inc. The corporation shall be referred to in this instrument as the "Association." The mailing address of the Association shall be 14601 SW 29 Street - Suite 202, Miramar, FL 33027 or such other address within the State of Florida as the Board of Directors may from time to time designate.

ARTICLE II

PURPOSE AND DEFINITIONS

2.1 The purpose for which the Association is organized is to provide an entity pursuant to The Florida Condominium Act to operate and administer a condominium to be known as Roads Ridge, a Condominium, which shall be located upon certain lands in Miami-Dade County, Florida.

2.2 The Florida Condominium Act in effect at the time of recording of the Declaration shall be referred to as the "Condominium Act" or simply the "Act". The Declaration of Condominium for the Condominium as recorded in the public records of said county is referred to herein as the "Declaration."

2.3 The Declaration was executed or will be executed by a party who shall be referred to as the "Developer," which term shall include any party designated in writing by the original Developer as a substitute Developer or who is a successor Developer by operation of law.

ARTICLE III

POWERS

The powers of the Association shall include and be governed by the following provisions:

3.1 The Association shall have all of the common-law and statutory powers of a Florida corporation not for profit not in conflict with the terms of these Articles, the Declaration of Condominium, or the Condominium Act.

3.2 The Association shall have all of the powers and duties set forth in the Condominium Act and the Declaration of Condominium, and all of the powers and duties reasonably necessary to operate the Condominium pursuant to the Declaration of Condominium as it may be amended from time to time, including, but not limited to, the following:

- a. To make and collect assessments against members as parcel owners to defray the costs, expenses and obligations of the Condominium;
- b. to use the proceeds of assessments in the exercise of its powers and duties;
- c. to maintain, repair, replace and operate the condominium property, including easements;
- d. to purchase insurance upon the condominium property and insurance for the protection of the Association and its members as unit owners;
- e. to reconstruct improvements after casualty and to further improve the property;
- f. to make and amend reasonable regulations respecting the use of the property in the Condominium; provided, however, that all such regulations and their amendments shall be approved by a majority of the Board of Directors before such shall become effective;
- g. to enforce by legal means the provisions of the Condominium Act, the Declaration of Condominium, these Articles, the By-Laws of the Association and the regulations for the use of the property in the Condominium;
- h. to contract for the management and maintenance of the Condominium and to authorize the management agent to assist the Association in carrying out its powers and duties by performing such functions as the collection of assessments, preparation of records, enforcement of rules and maintenance of common elements. The Association and its officers and directors shall, however, retain at all times the powers and duties granted them by the Condominium Act, including but not limited to the making of assessments, promulgation of rules, and execution of contracts on behalf of the Association;
- i. to employ personnel to perform the services required for proper operation of the Condominium;
- j. to acquire and enter into agreements whereby it acquires leaseholds, memberships or other possessory or use interests in lands or facilities, whether or not contiguous to the lands of the Condominium, that are intended to provide for the enjoyment, recreation or other use or benefit of the unit owners;
- k. to acquire, by purchase or otherwise, parcels of the Condominium, subject, nevertheless to the provisions of the Declaration and/or By-Laws relative thereto;

l. to enter into agreements with the Developer, other condominium associations, or any other legal entity for the maintenance, replacement or repair of any properties used in common with others such as, but not limited to, roads or subdivision-type improvements;

m. the power to levy reasonable fines as allowed by Section 718.303(3) of the Condominium Act.

3.3 All funds and the titles of all properties acquired by the Association and their proceeds shall be held in trust for the Members in accordance with the provisions of the Declaration, these Articles of Incorporation and the By-Laws. The Association shall make no distribution of income to its members, directors or officers.

3.4 The powers of the Association shall be subject to and shall be exercised in accordance with the provisions of the Declaration of Condominium, these Articles of Incorporation, the Bylaws and The Condominium Act.

ARTICLE IV MEMBERS

4.1 The members of the Association shall consist of all record owners of title to units in the Condominium, and after termination of the Condominium shall consist of those who are members at the time of such termination and their successors and assigns.

4.2 After receiving approval of purchasers of units from the Association as required by the Declaration of Condominium, such a change of membership in the Association shall be established by recording in the Public Records of Miami-Dade County a deed or other instrument establishing a record title to a unit in the Condominium and the delivery to the Association of a copy of the recorded instrument. The owner designated by such instrument thus becomes a member of the Association and the membership of the prior owner is terminated.

4.3 The share of a member in the funds and assets of the Association cannot be assigned, hypothecated or transferred in any manner except as an appurtenance to his unit.

4.4 As a member of the Association, each unit owner shall be entitled to one vote for each unit owned. If a unit is owned by more than one owner, all the owners of such unit shall collectively be entitled to cast only one vote for that unit. The manner of exercising voting rights shall be determined by the By-Laws of the Association.

ARTICLE V DIRECTORS

5.1 The affairs of the Association will be managed by a Board of Directors consisting of the number of persons designated in the Bylaws.

5.2 The Directors shall be elected at the annual meeting and shall serve for the term of one year or until his successor shall be elected.

5.3 Directors must be qualified to serve as provided in Article II of the Bylaws of the Association.

5.4 The Developer shall elect or appoint all Directors until such time as unit owners other than Developer are entitled to elect a Director under the provisions of Section 718.301 of the Condominium Act. Section 718.301 provides for election of directors and transfer of control as follows:

(1) If unit owners other than the developer own 15 percent or more of the units in a condominium that will be operated ultimately by an association, the unit owners other than the developer are entitled to elect at least one-third of the members of the board of administration of the association. Unit owners other than the developer are entitled to elect at least a majority of the members of the board of administration of an association, upon the first to occur of any of the following events:

(a) Three years after 50 percent of the units that will be operated ultimately by the association have been conveyed to purchasers;

(b) Three months after 90 percent of the units that will be operated ultimately by the association have been conveyed to purchasers;

(c) When all the units that will be operated ultimately by the association have been completed, some of them have been conveyed to purchasers, and none of the others are being offered for sale by the developer in the ordinary course of business;

(d) When some of the units have been conveyed to purchasers and none of the others are being constructed or offered for sale by the developer in the ordinary course of business;

(e) When the developer files a petition seeking protection in bankruptcy;

(f) When a receiver for the developer is appointed by a circuit court and is not discharged within 30 days after such appointment, unless the court determines within 30 days after appointment of the receiver that transfer of control would be detrimental to the association or its members; or

(g) Seven years after the date of the recording of the certificate of a surveyor and mapper pursuant to s. 718.104(4)(e) or the recording of an instrument that transfers title to a unit in the condominium which is not accompanied by a recorded assignment of developer rights in favor of the grantee of such unit, whichever occurs first; or, in the case of an association that may ultimately operate more than one condominium, 7 years after the date of the recording of the certificate of a surveyor and mapper pursuant to s. 718.104(4)(e) or the recording of an instrument that transfers title to a unit which is not accompanied by a recorded assignment of developer rights in favor of the grantee of such unit, whichever occurs first, for the first condominium it operates; or, in the case of an association operating a phase condominium created pursuant to s. 718.403, 7 years after the date of the recording of the certificate of a surveyor and mapper pursuant to s. 718.104(4)(e) or the recording of an instrument that transfers title to a unit which is not accompanied by a recorded assignment of developer rights in favor of the grantee of such unit, whichever occurs first. The developer is entitled to elect at least one member of the board of administration of an association as long as the developer holds for sale in the ordinary course of business at least 5 percent, in condominiums with fewer than 500 units, and 2 percent, in condominiums with more than 500 units, of the units in a condominium operated by the association. After the developer relinquishes control of the association, the developer may exercise the right to vote any developer-owned units in the same manner as any other unit owner except for purposes of reacquiring control of the association or selecting the majority members of the board of administration.

The developer is entitled to elect at least one member of the board of administration of an association as long as the developer holds for sale in the ordinary course of business at least 5 percent of the units in the condominium. After the developer relinquishes control of the association, the developer may exercise the right to vote any developer-owned units in the same manner as any other unit owner except for purposes of reacquiring control of the association or selecting the majority members of the board of administration.

5.5 Directors other than those appointed by the Developer may be removed, and vacancies on the Board of Directors may be filled, in the manner provided in the By-Laws.

5.6 The names and address of the members of the first Board of Directors who shall hold office until their successors are elected, or until removed, are as follows:

Name	Address
Tony Marzuka	14601 SW 29 Street - Suite 202, Miramar, FL 33027
Carlos Yanes	14601 SW 29 Street - Suite 202, Miramar, FL 33027
Ysan Baddur	14601 SW 29 Street - Suite 202, Miramar, FL 33027

ARTICLE VI OFFICERS

The Officers of the Association shall be elected by the Board of Directors at its first meeting following the annual meeting of the members and shall serve at the pleasure of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VII INDEMNIFICATION

Every Director and Officer of the Association shall be indemnified by the Association against all expenses and liabilities, including counsel fees, reasonably incurred by or imposed upon him in connection with any proceeding or settlement of any proceeding to which he may be a part or in which he may become involved by reason of his being or having been a Director or Officer of the Association, whether or not he is a Director or Officer at the time such expenses or liabilities are incurred, except in cases when (a) such indemnification is prohibited by Florida law or (b) when his actions or omissions were material and constitute a violation of the criminal law, unless he had reasonable cause to believe his conduct was lawful or had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. In the event of a settlement, the indemnification shall apply only when the Board of Directors approves such settlement and reimbursement as being for the best interest of the Association. The foregoing right of indemnification shall be in addition to and not exclusive of all other rights to which such Director or Officer may be entitled and will inure to the benefit of the heirs, personal representatives, executors and administrators of such person.

ARTICLE VIII BY-LAWS

The first By-Laws of the Association shall be adopted by the Board of Directors and may be altered, amended or rescinded in the same manner provided for herein for the amendment of these Articles.

ARTICLE IX AMENDMENTS

Amendments to the Articles of Incorporation shall be adopted in the following manner:

9.1 Notice of the subject matter of a proposed amendment shall be included in the notice to the owners of any meeting at which a proposed amendment is to be considered. Except as otherwise provided herein or in the Condominium Act or the Declaration of Condominium, a resolution adopting a proposed amendment shall require the approval of a majority of the Board of Directors and members entitled to vote more than two-thirds (2/3) of all voting interests of the Association.

9.2 No amendment shall be made that is in conflict with the Condominium Act or the Declaration of Condominium. No amendment shall be made without the written consent of the Developer so long as Developer owns and holds one or more units for sale in the ordinary course of business.

9.3 An amendment shall not be effective until it has been recorded in the Public Records of Miami - Dade County, Florida. The amendment must identify, on the first page thereof, the book and page of the public records where the Declaration is recorded.
