This corporation is established exclusively for charitable religious purposes within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code section 501(c)(3), namely: to found, maintain, and operate a Synagogue for Orthodox Jewish worship in the area of Boca Raton and there to provide worship services, sacred meals, musical praise, religious education classes, spiritual guidance, life-cycle celebrations, inspirational events, and community outreach activities to inspire all Jews to join the synagogue and participate in its activities. The synagogue will implement cultural, social and all other helpful services to the Jewish community. It will carry out works of charity to improve the Jewish and general communities, along with any additional activities which are seen by the Rabbi and directors as being helpful in enhancing the well-being of persons, families, and communities. It will carry out all its activities according to Torah-Halachic tradition contained in the Code of Jewish Law (Shulchan Aruch) by Rabbis Karo and Isserles along with all subsequent commentaries, all as understood by the synagogue's Rabbi. The Rabbi has been appointed according to Jewish religious law. He has authority in all matters pertaining to Jewish law, spirituality, or ethics. He shall be employed by the corporation's directors, and will receive advice from the Religion Committee.

This corporation will not attempt to influence legislation or participate in political campaigns of any sort. No part of the earnings of this corporation will inure for the benefit of its directors or officers and it will not distribute dividends to anyone. However, it will pay reasonable compensation for services provided, work done, resources purchased, or properties acquired in order to carry out its mission. It may rent or purchase real property in order to provide a suitable facility for worship and other activities. It will be empowered, at the sole discretion of the Directors, to provide a parsonage for the Rabbi and his family, along with all the customary furnishings, both communal and personal. This corporation will be empowered to supply all the resources and physical constructions required according to Orthodox Jewish Law and tradition, including but not limited to, Religious Articles, Kosher Food, Worship Sanctuaries, Meeting Rooms, Study Halls, Ritual Immersion Pools, Youth Facilities, Social Halls, Kitchens and Dining Halls, Religious School Classrooms, or transportation to any event which in the eyes of the Rabbi or the Religion Committee, is seen to be required for the fulfillment of religious duties. The Directors will appoint the Religion

Committee, who may be any number of persons whom the Directors and the Rabbi see as fitting.

Upon the filing of these articles with the Secretary of State, the Directors will be empowered to adopt bylaws and other related documents, to appoint corporate officers, to open bank accounts and serve as signatories both individually or in groups, to file forms with government agencies and to undertake any other action required for the operation of this corporation. The directors will adopt such decisions through in person meetings, telephonic communication, meetings via electronic media, written and signed consent, as well as by virtual signatures, all of which will be seen as equivalent to a vote cast at a meeting. Replies sent from emails belonging to directors or messages via any form of electronic communication belonging to directors, shall be seen as written signed consent to the proposal contained in the communication that is being replied to, and the equivalent of a vote cast at a meeting of the directors.

In the event of this corporation's dissolution, the directors will —after clearing all debts and liabilities— distribute any remaining funds or assets to other charitable organizations recognized by the IRS under section 501(c)(3) that have similar purposes.
