This corporation is established exclusively for charitable purposes within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code section 501(c)(3), namely: to provide music and entertainment programs that foster collaboration and kindness. It will accomplish these goals by planning, sponsoring, and implementing musical and entertainment activities along with other supportive services. Specifically, the organization aims to assist seniors, veterans, and individuals in need, enhancing the well-being of families and local areas.

Through the joy of music and entertainment, the organization aspires to create lasting happiness and compassion. These programs will be conducted in neighborhoods where the target groups reside, fostering a culture of generosity and unity. By improving the quality of life for seniors, veterans, and those in need, the organization hopes to strengthen social bonds and promote a sense of togetherness within the community. These efforts are crucial because they address the often-overlooked emotional and social needs of vulnerable populations. Providing opportunities for creative expression and community interaction helps combat loneliness, reduce stress, and improve mental health. Furthermore, fostering a culture of kindness and generosity can have a ripple effect, encouraging others to engage in positive community actions and building a more inclusive and supportive society.

This corporation will not attempt to influence legislation or participate in political campaigns of any sort. No part of the earnings of this corporation will inure for the benefit of its directors or officers and it will not distribute dividends to anyone. However, it will pay reasonable compensation for services provided, work done, resources purchased, or properties acquired in order to carry out its mission. It will rent or purchase real property in order to provide a suitable facility for its activities.

Upon the filing of these articles with the Secretary of State, the Directors will be empowered to adopt bylaws and other related documents, to appoint corporate officers, to file forms with government agencies and to undertake any other action required for the operation of this corporation. The directors will adopt such decisions through in person meetings, telephonic communication, meetings via electronic media, written and signed consent, as well as by virtual signatures, all of which will be seen as equivalent to a vote cast at a meeting. emails belonging to directors or messages via any form of electronic communication belonging to directors, shall be seen as written signed consent to the proposal contained in the communication that is being replied to, and the equivalent of a vote cast at a meeting of the directors. The directors named here are hereby empowered to open accounts at any bank, branch or financial institution that is seen by the directors as suitable and to serve as signatories both individually, in pairs or in groups.

In the event of this corporation's dissolution, the directors will –after clearing all debts and liabilities— distribute any remaining funds or assets to other charitable organizations recognized by the IRS under section 501(c)(3) that have similar purposes.
