ARTICLE 15 –INDEMNIFICATION

According to the text, the corporation can indemnify a director or officer who successfully defends themselves against any proceeding related to their status as a director or officer of the corporation. The corporation can also indemnify an individual who is made a party to a proceeding because of their affiliation with the corporation. The indemnification and advancement of attorney fees and expenses apply to directors, officers, employees, and agents of the corporation who are serving at the corporation's request while acting in their official capacity with the corporation or with another enterprise, whether for profit or not. Additionally, the corporation may pay or reimburse reasonable attorney fees and expenses to a director, officer, employee, or agent who is a party to a proceeding in advance of the final disposition of the proceeding. The corporation may also purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of an individual arising from their status as a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation. The articles of incorporation do not limit or preclude the exercise of any right relating to indemnification or the advance of attorney fees and expenses to any person who is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation. If any provision regarding indemnification or the advancement of attorney fees or expenses is held invalid, it shall be severable, and the remaining provisions shall remain unaffected. Finally, all references in the articles of incorporation to director, officer, employee, or agent shall include the heirs, estates, executors, administrators, and personal representatives of such persons.

ARTICLE 16 - DISSOLUTION

Upon dissolution of the Corporation or the winding up of its affairs, the assets of the Corporation shall be distributed exclusively to one or more charitable, religious, scientific, testing for public safety, literary, or educational organizations which then qualify under the provisions of Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended, or to the federal government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organization as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
